The New Christian Belief Coaching

By Daryl Daughtry

Christian Belief or Life Coaching can be traced to both the Old and New Testaments of the Bible, that teach, "people do what they do because they believe what they believe," i.e., "As a man thinks in his heart so is he." (Proverbs 23:7)

This alternative to traditional Christian counseling is not built on personal therapeutic skills or abilities, but rather on the powerful truth of the Word of God that counters the lies people have unfortunately believed. If a hurting person does not choose to allow God's Word to speak into his or her life, nothing will change. However, when he or she does, God will renew their mind and bring life−changing healing. Rather than focusing on a person's bad behavior, this process focuses on problematic thinking errors that are rooted in a false belief system.

Belief Coaching suggests that life−controlling problems and distortions of reality, responsibility and accountability are based on lies people believe. These lies originated from dysfunctional learning during a person's cognitive development. The Belief Coach helps a Christian client to identify the lies buried in his/her belief system, replace them with the truth, and begin renewing the mind (Rom. 12:2). Appropriating the truth will begin to make the person free by changing the way they think about things. Truth replacement can have, and often has, an immediate effect on a person's actions or behavior, but the renewing of the mind is a process.

One central element of Belief Coaching is the development of a positive Christian self−concept grounded in God's unconditional, electing love in Jesus Christ. With a Biblical perspective of self−concept a person is released from the burden of having to generate feelings of self−worth based on performance. Since a Christian, i.e., a believer in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, need not be a slave to ego−enhancing behavior, he/she can be free to be unselfish and to manifest virtues such as faith, integrity, knowledge, patience, self−control, God−consciousness, kindness, love, sacrifice, obedience and humility. But without a healthy self−acceptance based on who we are "in Christ," the practice of these values can easily become a neurotic striving to gain God's approval.

Zombies of the Christian Reich

By Larsen Rogers

Zombies of the Christian Reich by Larsen Rogers

One of these days I am going to write a screenplay. This story will be titled, "Zombies of the Christian Reich." I am offended by the far right thinking Christians that promote the ludicrous idea that this is a Christian Nation.

Isn't that what Nazi Germany was?

Yes, it is true Nazi Germany was a Christian Nation and that is why they killed and imprisoned people who were not Christians (i.e., Jews).

A great movie of great shock value would one titled, "Zombies of the Christian Reich," The film will be allegorical but horrific. The Christian Reich is a group of Zombies that bite the secular victims and try to persuade rational minded people to accept and promote a belief that is inaccurate and outdated.

Imagine being in a dark theater. The movie screen displaying walking corpses with emblazed Christian crosses on their forehead. The zombies move quickly towards their victims as they mutter Biblical verses and promises of eternal salvation. The victims being people of secular reason and science are struggling to escape the grasp of the evil zombies.

There is a sound of crunching cartilage and bone as a zombie sinks teeth into the neck and shoulder of a victim. Blood sprays and the victim who was a rational and happy human morphs into a dying corpse. A bloody cross is magical etched into the victim's forehead. The victim becomes a zombie of the Christian Reich and begins to hunt down other victims.

The purpose of the film is to explain what the Christian Reich is attempting to do to our nation. They are taking over.

Humanity has survived into the twenty−first century. Our greatest triumphs have been liberty, science and technology. We have moved beyond the need for an inaccurate and outdated belief system.

The Christian Reich destroys our human progress. Our morality, spirituality and vision for the future declines as the Christianized media attempts to coerce us into believing in their belief system.

The shock of the film will be to illustrate the message that Christianity is nothing more than a man made religion. There is no special magic or god ordained beliefs. The Christian Reich is using Government and Law to force their beliefs on the citizens in the USA. They use mainstream media to degrade and insult those they oppose. We should do the same by making movies and shows that display the Christian Reich for what they are: A Phantom Menace.
