10 Tips for Better Grades in Math

by: Dr. Kempton Smith

Pass these on to your high school math student:

1. Don't just aim for 70%. Aim high and shoot for 100%.
2. When doing your math homework, be neat. It does make a difference.
6. If you don't understand something, ask your teacher as soon as you can.
6. Watch for summaries within and at the end of assigned chapters.
7. Look for bold face and italic copy. They signify important points to remember.
9. Keep up with your class on a daily basis. Try hard not to get behind.

5 Ways To Help Your Kids Do Math

By Murdo Macleod

Uh oh.

Studies have shown that children are much more likely to perform well in a subject that interests them.

10 Tips for Better Grades in Math

1. Inspire them.

What you need to do is show them how important math is in the real world.

2. Get practical.

3. Take life "step-by-step".

4. Encourage creativity.

Crosswords and lateral thinking puzzles are good for this kind of flexible thinking.

5. Be positive.

Now who said your kids couldn't do math?
