20 Fun Ideas for National Turn Off TV Week

By Deborah Shelton

National Turn Off Your TV Week is April 21–27 this year. Why not take the holiday one step further and turn off the computer as well? Here are 20 fun ways your family can make the most of this celebration.

1. Read a book.
2. Write a letter—not an email—to a dear friend.
3. Bathe the dog.
4. Play a game of Candyland or Chutes and Ladders.
5. Paint each other's faces.
6. Do cartwheels in the front yard.
7. Camp out in the back yard with a tent, flashlight and lots of munchies.
8. Host a garage sale.
9. Visit the library for story time.
10. Go on a snail-hunting expedition, then release the snails in a cool, moist, shady spot.
11. Look through and organize family photos.

20 Fun Ideas for National Turn Off TV Week

12. Start a seasonal family photo scrapbook.
13. Read the Sunday comics together.
14. Make a CD wall mirror with free internet CDs that arrive in the mail.
15. Bake cookies.
16. Have a living room picnic.
17. Challenge your brother or sister to a staring contest.
18. Play a game of I-Spy.
19. Go for a walk around the block.
20. Make and fly paper airplanes.

However you decide to entertain yourself and your family,

remember the most important thing: No television!

Best Baby Shower Invitation Ideas

By Michael Oliver

The best baby shower invitation ideas help everyone to have fun without adding stress on the expectant mother. Planning for a newborn can be overwhelming to each family member, so providing the best baby shower invitation ideas with fun and little effort on Mom helps to give the baby shower lasting feelings of friendship and love.

Many baby showers focus on one or two fun areas that make the shower a party, but the best baby shower invitation ideas also create cherished memories as a gift that lasts for years after the celebration. These baby shower invitation wording ideas can help you get your messages across best –

One of the Best Baby Shower Invitation Ideas is the Children's Book Theme. Ask each guest to include her favorite child's book for the new baby's library-to-be. Most guests usually bring more than one book and it's a great way for everyone to reminisce about special memories at the party. Include a separate note in the invitation reminding each guest to write a short message for the new baby to eventually read why that book was your guest's favorite.

Second on the list of Best Baby Shower Invitation Ideas is the Handy Week Helpers for the Couple Theme. Organize a week of short, but helpful activities as part of the group event, where some of the invited guests offer an hour of assistance one day of the week just before the Baby Shower.

Some suggestions for the week: No-Cook Monday: One or two of the guests brings dinner for the couple. Foot Massage Tuesday Walk-The-Dog Wednesday Wash-The-Car Thursday

Mow-The-Yard Friday

Have this Best Baby Shower Invitation Idea on Saturday when everyone shows up in casual handy helper clothes to either enjoy time together or to finish projects around the house agreed to in advance. The Handy Week Helpers is a lot less work than it appears and it can be one of the most rewarding Baby Showers you'll ever attend.

Best Baby Shower Invitation Ideas three: Baby Grows Up Theme - Guests arrive dressed as their parents and write in a memento book the most treasured item their parents taught that made their lives most meaningful. Each guest reads her contribution at the shower and the book becomes an added keepsake for the baby. Add your Favorite Baby Shower Games or see some free baby shower games here:
