5 Tips to Locating Highly Competitive Wholesale Products – PART 1 by Sheila Newth

I know, so you're finally beginning your longtime dream of selling Online, right?

But you may be thinking "Where in the WORLD do I find super low priced, high quality wholesale products for my specific niche"?

Or perhaps,

"I know that part" you may say, "But how can I find them"?

After all, the profits are all in the sources, right?

"So, what do I do first"?

So, honestly, what are you so afraid of anyway?

So you really need to get one!

"Why do I need one, if I can buy from wholesalers without it"?

They are both the same thing, but are given various names depending on where you live.

But one thing remains the same: You will need one to buy from true wholesalers.

This is how "middlemen" like to operate:

They earn a nice hefty profit in the process.

So get your license TODAY! RUN; don't walk to your local city hall.

One of the easiest ways to locate some great sources of wholesale products is to visit EBay's very own "WHOLESALE LOTS" section!

It's located here:

When I say anything, I mean anything!

THEN YOU RESELL IT!

EBAY RESEARCH TOOL NUMBER 1)

EBAY RESEARCH TOOL NUMBER 2)

It can be found at www.hotitemfinder.com .

With this tool, you (as an Ebay seller) can:

- 1) Get a great idea for what items to sell on eBay
- 2) Use the popular search term generator to create very attractive auction descriptions
- 3) Save a huge amount of time researching at eBay
- 4) Analyze a particular category to see which one contains the most items
- 5) Find out how much your competitors are selling their products
- 6) Increase auction hits by adding popular search terms in your auction descriptions and titles
- 7) Find products in your market that are selling

Stay tuned for PART 2...
