Are They All Healed When You Pray?

Everyone in the healing ministry experiences failure when praying with others for healing. "Failure" in this connection is simply not seeing the healing happen that you prayed for. "Failure" in prayer is never absolute because God always recognises our genuine efforts.

But we can reduce the percentage of failures by giving attention to the possible causes. This article briefly discusses some of the causes and suggests some solutions.

1. Faith

The disciples once asked Jesus to increase their faith (Luke 17. 5). His reply may seem somewhat obtuse. He certainly did not respond to them as they expected, telling them what they could do if they had even the tiniest amount of faith.

Is there a lesson for us here? Most certainly! It is, perhaps, twofold. Firstly, we use what faith we have got at the time. An obvious implication since Jesus did not do what they asked. Secondly, we need to improve the quality of the faith we have. Another clear, perhaps even clearer implication of Jesus' response.

How? Not easy to give a short answer. But look at the life of someone like Smith Wigglesworth. (Never heard of him? You really do need to get down to your nearest Christian book shop!). Reading the biographies about create considerable enthusiasm in oneself – at first. Then you might begin to get frustrated after the first four or five. Why? Because none of the writers (can?) tell you how he came to have such great faith. He certainly did not start with it!

Are They All Healed When You Pray?

In conversation recently a lady pointed to the real reason: "I felt disgusted with myself," she said, "because of the great love he had for the Lord". That is the ultimate key.

2. Time

We do not, however, love God in isolation from his people. In his first letter, at 4. 20 John tells us that a person is a liar who says he loves God while hating his brother. Indeed, he says that anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot claim to love God, whom he has never seen.

We need to love those we pray with enough to spend whatever amount of time is necessary to get to the root of their problem and so pray effectively for them. Failure here is an important cause of nonhealing. Yet Jesus has commanded us that: anyone who loves God must also love his brother.

3. Unfocussed Prayer

In fact, this follows from the last point. We need to spend time making an adequate assessment of what is wrong with the person only so that we can pray specifically into that situation. This is something my wife and I lay considerable stress on in our book "The Keys To Praying For Healing". Its importance cannot be overlooked.

One can spend considerable time teaching individuals how to pray with other for healing, laying stress on how specific the prayer should be. But so many people, when it comes to actually praying, fall back into something like "Oh Lord, please heal him/her in all the ways he/she needs healing".

Somehow, God is so good that no prayer is a waste of time, but this kind of prayer probably comes very close! Certainly, praying like that will not result in many healings.

Focus your prayer exactly on the problem. If they have cancer, or a damaged vertebrae, or Aids, or a cold, pray exactly into that!

Letting God Be God

Anyone can pray with another for healing. And anyone can see that healing take place – because God's love for us is so great. However, his knowledge and wisdom are also very great and he sees things differently to us. So we shall not always know why a particular healing does not happen. Sometimes it is down to the factors we are discussing here. Sometimes it is due to similar ones we do not have space to included here.

But sometimes nonhealing is due to something which we shall never know about. We need to do all we can, certainly. But when that has been done, there will always be cases which defy explanation. On the other hand, there will also be cases where God works in such a sovereign way that we are left speechless at the "how" and the "why" of it.

Sometimes, in either of these instances, we just have to let God be God"

5. Gifting

Anyone can pray with another for healing. But if we feel called into the healing ministry, we really ought to get ourselves prayed with for a gift of healing.

Just as God can heal without us, so he can empower us without any assistance from anyone else! But unless we know ourselves to have been specifically blessed in this way, we really ought to seek the prayers of others.

What others? Well, any Christian who know what he/she is about. But there does seem to be a definite advantage in being prayed with by someone known to have a gift of healing themselves. Many healers will themselves testify to this. God can give when anyone asks, but...

Battle Healing Prayer

By Dr. Jay Snell

I want to show you how to not be dependent on somebody else's anointing. It's the anointing that breaks the yoke of sickness or anything else. There's no doubt about that. That is a fact. What we must understand is that the anointing comes on an act of faith.

Let me repeat it. The anointing comes on an act of faith. You can control this anointing simply by performing it. Therefore, if you act on faith, you control the anointing that follows because the anointing comes on an act of faith.

Are They All Healed When You Pray?

Now, I am going to give you The Seven Acts of Faith which makes up the Battle Healing Prayer. We put all seven of them together and use them as a unit. When we use them in concert, we can shake Heaven, earth and the pits of hell with them.

There are seven things you can do which bring down the anointing of God. When His anointing falls upon these seven acts, it will get for you what you need from God.

No matter what it is that you need, whether healing, financial blessing, no matter what it is, these seven acts that you must perform will deliver for you. All seven of these acts of faith must be done in their proper order.

These seven steps are nothing more than spiritual warfare. Therefore, I call praying for the sick or doing spiritual warfare simply "The Seven Acts of Faith which brings down the anointing for Healing (or whatever I need) Every time." I also call them "Your Battle Healing Prayer."

Terminology and titles are not as important as remembering that these Seven Acts are things you must do. But remember! They must be done in their proper order.

Act of Faith #1: Praise the Lord and keep on praising Him until you feel his presence.

(Based on Psalms 22:3 plus many more Scriptures.)

Act of Faith #2: Specifically pray to God in Jesus name for two and only two things here. 1. Pray for Him to remove the pain from the subjects body. 2. Pray for Him to heal the cause of their pain.

(Based on John 15:7 plus many more Scriptures.)

Act of Faith #3: Bind the Strongman. The Strongman is the devil himself. He must be bound before you can attack the demon that is either causing or assisting in the sickness of the subject. Quit worrying about what you believe, just do it! Bind the Strongman!

(Based on Mt 12:29, Mr 3:27, and Lu 11:21.)

Act of Faith #4: Cast out the demon! Tell him his strongman has been bound and that he has no right to be causing sickness in the subjects body. Command him to come out in Jesus name and take this sickness, pain, injury and disease with him. Say, "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, come out of Subject's name, and take all your sickness and pain with you.

(Based on Mark 16: 17 plus many other Scriptures)

Act of Faith #5: Speak to the pain. Command the pain to come out of Subject's name. Tell it to come out now. Say, "Pain in Jesus' name, come out of Subject's name!"

(Based on Mark 11:23 plus many more Scriptures.)

Are They All Healed When You Pray?

Act of Faith #6: Speak death into the sickness and pain. Say, "Sickness! I speak death into you. I declare, decree and establish the death sentence in you. Die at the roots! Dry up! Come out of Subject's name in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth! You are dead and can do no more damage! Come out of Subject's name now!"

(Based on Mark 11:23 plus many more Scriptures.)

Act of Faith #7: Speak healing into Subject's name. Say, "I declare, decree and establish you healed." Then command the subject to heal. Say, "Be healed in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, be healed! Be healed! Be healed! In Jesus' name, be healed!"

(Based on Acts 3:6 plus many more Scriptures.)

Repeat these Seven Acts over and over each and every day until the victory comes. It will. The anointing always comes on an act of faith. Here are Seven Acts for the anointing to come upon.

Dr. Jay Snell authored eleven books proving the healing, prosperity, family well being, salvation, eternal security and pretribulation rapture provided for Christians in the Abrahamic covenant.
