How to Clean Your Civil War Uniform

By Paula and Coach McCoach

How necessary is cleaning your Civil War Uniform?

This leaves us with the question -

Do you really need to wash or dry clean your Civil War uniform?

Are You Embarrassed by Your Civil War Uniform Impression?

Some reasons for cleaning a uniform may be

1. To prevent it from smelling really bad.
3. To have your uniform look good.
4. To do some type of seasonal, yearly, monthly maintenance to preserve your uniform.

So, considering all of these things, if you still want to clean your uniform, here are my suggestions.

1. Do as little as possible. Less is better.
2. Jackets, pants, and vests (wool/jean cloth) – None of mine have ever been laundered.
3. What I do is I put them outside on the porch on a hanger and let them air out.
4. If I want to get some of the dirt out, I use a nice stiff brush and brush the dirt out of it.

(A stiff hairbrush works fine.)
