Are You a Victim?

By Daniel N. Brown

Are You a Victim? by Daniel N. Brown

Do you find yourself living from paycheck to paycheck? Do you often feel overwhelmed, tired, and worn out? Are you in debt? Is there no enjoyment in what you do?

If the answer to any four of these questions is a yes, then ask yourself a simple question. Why am I not living my dream?

I find that most people go through life, just enduring it. They become numb to their problems. Things are just uncomfortable enough to complain, but do nothing about. Joyce Meyer has a saying that says, "Complain, and remain." I don't know about you, but I did not want to remain in a dead end job, poor health, lousy marriage, endless bills, and everything else that wanted to steal my joy.

You might be like a lot of people that I have encountered that make excuses. All excuses are the same and one is no better than another. Excuses are completely useless and only render you helpless.

Making excuses and casting blame only make us out to be the victim. There is absolutely no power in playing the part of the victim. I know! I've been there and done that. And no one could beat me at the blame game. I was the blaming king! I was a victim. Why did life deal me such a poor hand? Why does everyone else always get the breaks? If it wasn't for you I could be successful. Even at one point, I went so far to say that someone put a curse on me.

I eventually took full responsibility for my shortcomings, but it was only after I acknowledged where I was and why. The truth hurts. I had to admit, to myself, and everyone around me, that in some fashion, I caused this. I admitted that I was making excuses and casting the blame. It was a humbling experience, to say the least. But, I tell ya, it was worth it. I am free!

The answers to most complicated problems are usually simple. Not all, but most. I understand that there are things that are completely out of our control. But, those things are just life and we must deal with them with the best attitude we can muster.

As for the majority of our problems, the first step is to acknowledge our situation. You can never solve a problem in your life until you can first acknowledge that you have one.

Do you sincerely want to move on with your life? You can if you decide to. Make a decision today to take full responsibility for where you are. Maybe you haven't made the right choices up to this point. But now, decide that you will make your choices right.

Mesothelioma Victim And Lawsuit For Compensation

By Kirsten Hawkins

Before we understand Mesothelioma Victim Lawsuit compensation, it is important to have a basic understanding of mesothelioma and its possible causes. Mesothelioma is a cancer caused by exposure to and inhaling asbestos particles.

Mesothelioma is serious cancer of the lining of the lungs and abdomen. This is a serious disease and its seriousness is enhanced by the fact that it can remain dormant in the body for more than thirty years. However, when it starts to manifest the medical treatment thereafter is of no avail. The knowledge of being affected by Mesothelioma so late in life comes as a shock. It causes trauma and upheaval in the life of the individual and the family members. It further adds a burden on the meager financial resources of the individual for being treated for Mesothelioma at a time when he/she should have been relaxing and enjoying life with their grandchildren. This is the major reason why many mesothelioma victims are filing lawsuits to seek compensation.

Mesothelioma Victim Lawsuit compensation is a step against organizations that endangered the lives of their employees by deliberately hiding the information related to the health hazards of asbestos exposure.

The life span of a Mesothelioma victim is not more than twelve months after the diagnosis of disease. This adds to their woes in seeking compensation in time. It further shocks the family members and their near and dear one has very little time left. The family members can file Mesothelioma Victim Lawsuit compensation even after person dies. However, they have to file the lawsuits for compensation within a stipulated duration of the death of mesothelioma victim.

Most of the mesothelioma victims and their family members are not sure how to go about the Mesothelioma Victim Lawsuit compensation. Fortunately, there are experts lawyers that specialize in dealing with mesothelioma lawsuits for compensation.

Generally, the mesothelioma attorneys work on a contingent fee plan. This helps the victim to file the lawsuits for mesothelioma compensation without worrying for the legal expenses. These lawyers charge no upfront fee. They charge a percentage of the compensation as their fee and charge no fee if the victim does not get any compensation. The mesothelioma lawyers also help the victim to compile details and gather information related to asbestos exposure thereby get attractive sum as compensation from the mesothelioma lawsuit.
