Beyond Expectation And Enjoy Success

By Dr. Drew Henry

The basic but important principle of success in life and business is to give better service with a positive mental attitude above and beyond what is expected Nature applies this principle in the production of foods that grow from the soil. The farmer is forced to go the extra mile, clearing the land, plowing it and planting the seed at the right time of the year. He receives no pay in advance for his labor but he works in harmony with nature's laws with the necessary requirements. Nature takes over and germinates the seed he plants and develops it into a crop of food.

For every grain of wheat or corn planted, nature yields hundreds of grains. Nature goes the extra mile by producing enough of every living thing to ensure the survival of the species. Nature discourages the habit of getting something for nothing!

In the animal world, there is no fresh lunch. Animals in the wild must either forage for leaves and berries or hunt down their prey to survive. Nature supplies the source of food for every living thing but every creature must work to obtain that food.

Going the extra mile in the workplace An efficient and courteous server in a restaurant is a prime example of going the extra mile. Most people will notice the extra attention along with good service and leave a generous tip. Anyone may earn a living without going the extra mile but they will not enjoy the economic security and luxuries.

Colonel Sanders of 'Kentucky Fried Chicken' fame pitched his famous recipe over a thousand times before it was picked up and promoted. We all know the rest of the story! Had he given up at any time he would have been stuck with his minimal monthly pension. The Colonel proved that going the extra mile with a positive mental attitude will help anyone achieve their goals.

Advantages of going beyond expectation:

1. Job security when employment is scarce 2. Extra compensation for services rendered 3. Builds a positive mental attitude 4. Develops personal initiative 5. Has a positive effect on co-workers and employees 6. Helps to develop a definite purpose 7. Creates a sense of direction in life 8. Prevents procrastination 9. Helps to keep a clear conscience 10. Stimulates the soul

So if you go the extra mile and make it a daily habit you will stand out in a crowd and enjoy endless success for the rest of your life!

Praying with Expectation

By Daniel N. Brown

Praying with Expectation by Daniel N. Brown

Did you know that expectation is the key to receiving all the good things God has for you? It is written, "Whatsoever things you desire when you pray, believe you receive them and you shall have them." (Mark 11:24)

Believe you receive, or expect! What good does it do to pray without expecting God to answer? You might as well be talking to a tree. The Bible says, "Without faith, it is impossible to please God, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." (Heb 11:6) Faith, belief, expectation are required to receiving what you desire in life.

I see a lot of good Christian people pray to God, asking something from Him, and never doing anything on their part to bring it to pass. God will do His part, for sure, but we are required to do our part as well.

What is our part? Believe, expect, confess, and anything else that could physically be done on our part. "Faith without works is dead." (James 2:20)

I believe God's heart aches when you are hurting in any way. He wants you to be happy and enjoy your life and you should have the things you need and desire. Besides, it is our duty to prosper? 1 Thessalonians 4 says, "Increase, more and more, aspire to lead a quiet life, mind your own business, work with your own hands, walk properly toward those who are outside, and lack nothing."

Go forth and prosper, as God would have you do.
