...people are still dying of all types of cancers, AIDS, muscle disorders, as you know very, very well. Why is it that the public believes that 'funds have to be raised' to 'do research', if this conclusive information has existed for over 16 years??

Can it really be that all our diseases are caused, or accelerated by parasites? And that they can simply be cured with one small piece of equipment along with widely available herb preparations?

When I first heard about this, I was completely disgusted that these worms and larva reside inside of me. I have considered myself a healthy person. A doctor's visit lies so far in the past that I cannot remember, when and where it took place.

Then my mom in Berlin, Germany, was diagnosed with cancer and I began the intense research. Just upon a simple search, the one source that I have appreciated ever since, made the most logical sense. Parasites that harbor other parasites, bacteria and viruses are the culprits, and the remedy is simple, yet entails some quite lengthy procedures, worse, the longer one waits.

Then again, why worry, at least nobody dies! I discovered things like 'there's seagull droppings in my table salt', 'all the fruit in my fridge contain extremely toxic mold', 'the metal flatware I use makes me sick', and the 'bathroom supplies me with several extra shots of carcinogens, several times a day'.

The proof is in the pudding: We make Prohpyl Alcohol in our bodies, due to extensive exposure to chemicals and metals.

+++Congestive Heart Disease? Caused by 3 types of parasites.

+++Diabetes? Caused by the Pancreatic Fluke.

+++Cancer, Alzheimer's, AIDS, Cystic Fibrosis..., you name it.

Was this information suppressed? You better believe it. Imagine what will happen to the Medical 'Establishment', when they have no more 'patients' (we have been somewhat 'impatient', lately)...

The technology is available, and it is even known that people with AIDS are dying of Liver Failure, meaning that the drugs they take are killing them more likely than anything else.

Are you with me?

My own mother, Ursula Herrmann died, owning the book on these facts for over a year, and translated into German.

She did NOT read it and trusted her doctors instead, while dying a slow, painful death!! I am still not over that fact.

This is the reason why I want you to know about this. You must spread the word about this information. The only acceptable medical professionals we need are Dentists, Chiropractors and Surgeons. All those other medical charlatans, who do apparently not care about alternative methods, prescribe medications against parasites (as we know at this time) that still multiply in our bodies, medications that cause multiple side effects, so they can prescribe yet even more procedures and more medications, etc... It is not their oath to save lives that they are following, but an industry of antiquated expensive but ineffective treatments, leaving the people in their care up to awful misery for their own private financial gain.

The information you need to have is simple to understand and easy to follow. You can instantly enhance your own life and the lives of all the people you know. Get the facts at no charge now and save others. <http://self-healing.telechurch.org>

Macgyver (Season 2) DVD Review

By Britt Gillette

Far different from the usual television action series, MacGyver premiered in Fall of 1985 to widespread audience acclaim. Fans fell in loves with an action hero who used his brain instead of his brawn to get himself out of jams, and the interesting and elaborate methods deployed by the title character made for interesting water cooler talk. These unorthodox escape plans were very similar to The A-Team, another popular 80s action series. Overall, the first several seasons of MacGyver are the best...

The MacGyver (Season 2) DVD features a number of action-packed episodes including the season premiere "The Human Factor" in which MacGyver and the Phoenix Foundation are called upon to test the security of a top-secret military installation. When MacGyver makes a bet with the security designer, Dr. Jill Ludlum, he successfully gains entry, but the automated system traps them both inside (with a dwindling supply of oxygen) where they're forced to race for their lives against a ticking clock... Other notable episodes from Season 2 include "The Road Not Taken" in which MacGyver encounters his former fiancée while helping a nun, and "Birth Day" in which MacGyver must guard a pregnant woman from her husband, who's out to kill her...
