After all the wedding photos, wedding moments and wedding games, there would be one thing which would be your constant companion all through your life— the wedding ring. In fact your wedding ring would always remain the all beautiful and visible reminder of that special day that marked the new phase of your life. So, in order to ensure that the appeal and the charm of your wedding glisten on your wedding ring forever, you can choose from the latest wedding rings available in the market.

Let's have a quick peep into the popular choices of contemporary wedding rings.

Platinum Wedding Rings Platinum wedding rings are the latest addition to the market of wedding rings. Actually these are placed just second to diamond wedding rings in terms of style, value and class. Like the old times, platinum rings are no longer combined with yellow gold. In fact today, they are available as high polished platinum which speaks for itself.

Platinum wedding rings are considered to be very durable and provide high resistance to the wear and tear caused to the ring following the routine activities. Moreover, platinum wedding rings are the best buys for the people with sensitive skin. For, platinum is neutral to the skin and thus doesn't trigger any allergic reactions to it.

Despite a large number of advantages attached to the platinum wedding rings, their cost is relatively less when compared to the diamond wedding rings. On the other hand, it is approximately three times expensive than a gold ring.

Well, if you choose to buy a platinum wedding ring for yourself, you can assure yourself that the charm and appeal of platinum would last with you forever.

Moissanite Wedding Rings Moissanite wedding rings have become the latest sensations in the wedding rings arena. These wedding rings provide you the charm, sparkle and appeal of a diamond ring. In fact moissanite wedding rings look exactly like diamond rings. No one can differentiate between a moissanite wedding ring and a diamond wedding ring through naked eyes. In fact a majority of jewelers won't be able to identify a real diamond and a moissanite, at once.

Despite the elegance and grace of diamonds, a moissanite wedding rings costs as low as 1/10th of the price of a diamond ring of the similar dimensions.

Some people even believe that moissanite holds a greater degree of sparkle than an authentic gold ring. While others quote that these are imitation diamond rings. But the truth is that these wedding rings are becoming immensely popular and the best substitutes to the expensive diamond rings.

Titanium Wedding Rings Titanium wedding rings are yet another recent addition to the market of wedding rings. One of the most prominent forms of titanium wedding rings are the black titanium rings which are immensely popular among the young peeps.

Titanium wedding rings are famous for their very unique properties. These rings do not corrode, dull or rust over a large period of time. They are available in popular wedding band shapes- the domed and the flat bands. Apart from the shapes, these wedding rings are available in various unique designs and engravings. The prices of these rings are very less as compared to the costly diamond, gold and platinum wedding rings.

Well, these were some of the trendiest and mod wedding rings available in the contemporary jewelry market. So, if you are planning to buy a wedding ring, you can definitely consider one of these options.

Design Your Own Beautiful Wedding Ring

By Donna Monday

It used to be that if you wanted to buy a nice custom-made wedding ring, you'd have to visit some fancy high-end jewelry store and be willing to part with a large portion of your wedding budget.

Well that's still the case for some people, but thanks to our modern times it's now possible for you and anyone else who wants a custom wedding ring to create a unique diamond wedding ring from the comfort of your own home.

Oleg Cassini will have nothing on you as you sit in your chair sipping a soda looking at the various wedding ring photos that your favorite online jewelry store makes easily available.

You will quickly see that it's easy to design your own wedding ring online. The first thing you want to look at when you set out to build your own wedding ring is the setting. You'll have your choice of wedding ring settings in various metals like: gold, white gold, sterling silver, and platinum. While studying the stylish settings, be sure to check your ring size for accuracy in purchasing a comfortable fitting wedding ring.

Next, you'll want to select the right diamond to fit your setting. The common diamond cut shapes are: round, pear, emerald, princess, marquise, oval, radiant, heart, and Asscher. You will probably take a while just studying all the attributes of the various diamond shapes and sizes. Of course, you can always choose to purchase the setting online and then take it to your local jeweler to have it fit with a diamond.

You are the designer extraordinaire! You are not bound by what someone else thinks you will like. So, go ahead and feel free to create your own wedding ring. There's nobody else to please but you.

And you will just love the results.
