Caribbean Questions – Questions A Tourist Might Ask About The Caribbean?

By Carrie Vance

* What are the major tourist attractions in the Caribbean?

You will surely love your Caribbean vacation travel. There are a multitude of tourist attractions there. The following are just some of the major tourist attractions in the Caribbean:

· Dunn's River Falls · El Morro on San Juan Bay · El Yunque · Paseo de la Princesa, San Juan · Playa Balneario Luquillo · Los Tres Ojos · Cuevas de Bellamar · Crashboat Beach · Altos de Chavón · San Juan Bay

* Will I need a passport to travel to the Caribbean?

Generally, you do not need to have a passport when you want to visit the Caribbean. You will only need a passport if you want to travel to certain countries of the Caribbean including the Bahamas and Bermuda. Most other countries in the Caribbean do not require passports.

* Will I have to go through customs when traveling to the Caribbean?

You may need to go through customs when you plan to travel to the Caribbean. This is due to the fact that a handful of the countries in the Caribbean require a passport. This will serve as your identification. For you to get a passport, you need to go through Immigrations and Customs.

* What is the best time of year to visit the Caribbean?

If you want to enjoy your vacation in the Caribbean, you should be aware of the seasons when Caribbean tours and travel agencies offer lower priced packages. You may also want to avoid the late summer during hurricane season. The best season to visit the Caribbean is the springtime. Aside from very nice weather, you will be treated to a budget vacation trip.

* Does the Caribbean accept U.S. money?

Caribbean Questions – Questions A Tourist Might Ask About The Caribbean?

Many vacation spots in the Caribbean accept US dollars. There are stores, establishments and different amenities in some of the states in the Caribbean that allow US dollars.

There are, however, parts of the Caribbean that do not accept US money. You will need to go to the bank to have your dollars exchanged for their currency.

* What are the best hotels to stay at while in the Caribbean?

There are many hotels in the Caribbean. Usually, most of these hotels have different services to offer. However, you will need to find the best hotel for you to spend your holiday in.

You should always find the best hotel with all the amenities you need. You can find amenities like live entertainment centers, bars, disco houses, fine dining restaurants and many more.

They should all have these services available for a reasonable price.

* What is the Caribbean cuisine like?

People often come back to the Caribbean for the Caribbean cuisine. Rich in tropical flavors, you will find that you can find just about anything at the Caribbean including seafood, chicken, steak, and more. These are all specially prepared with the distinctive ingredients found only on the islands.

Popular Caribbean cuisines includes rich dishes like coconut shrimp, chicken pasta, kebabs, ribs with guava and kebab sauce.

* What is the weather like in the Caribbean?

The weather in the Caribbean stays fairly consistent year round. Usually the average temperature is 80F to 85F (27C to 31C). Other islands like those on the northern and southern parts exceed 5C.

The weather is rainy and humid from May to November. Rainy seasons vary from one country to another but, usually, this kind of weather comes during higher temperatures.

Visit The Caribbean Islands

By Analeese Burnabaker

There are many wonderful and beautiful places to visit in the world. If you are blessed enough to get frequent vacations then you are well aware of the fact that it can be hard to choose what kind of vacation to go on and where to spend your days away from work. Do you want to vacation somewhere warm or somewhere cold? Do you prefer a bit of an isolated vacation or do you like the busyness of being surrounded by many people? As my family and I have been vacationing for the past few years, we have determined our favorite spot that we just cannot get enough of: the Caribbean islands.

I knew the Caribbean islands were something special the first time we took our children there. There was a magic and a wonder in their eyes upon seeing the water that even Disney World didn't evoke the year before. Our kids were absolutely hooked on the sheer beauty of the Caribbean islands. I didn't mind the relaxed pace or the daily agenda of just being by the water and swimming if we felt like it.

One of the great things about the Caribbean islands is the variety of locations and feels there is to choose from. If you are looking for an island with a lot of activity, you can find it in the Caribbean islands. If, however, you are looking for a quiet and secluded feel for your vacation, it is not hard to find a Caribbean island that fits your needs. Few places in the world offer such flexibility for any kind of vacation. You can stay on a Caribbean island that offers a lot of tourist attractions or you can stay somewhere that only offers the beach. It's up to you.

Another obvious thing to love about the Caribbean islands is the sheer beauty that surrounds you. I have never been to a place more beautiful in all my travels. From the moment we stepped off the plane we were struck by just how full of beauty the Caribbean islands were. The water held a variety of shades of blue and green. The sand was nearly angel hair white and the sky was bright blue and full of sunshine every day. The landscaping was immaculate and I have rarely seen as green of grass and plants. The Caribbean islands are simply unmatched for this kind of beauty.

So, if you're looking for a great place to vacation, look no further than to the Caribbean islands. You can experience any kind of vacation you want to, but all in the midst of the beauty and wonder of the Caribbean islands. What could be better than that?

Analeese Burnabaker loves to visit the Caribbean islands. As a travel consultant, she also loves to encourage others to visit there too. See
