Choosing Banquet Facilities For Toronto Weddings

By Rafi Michael

Maybe your daughter has come to you starry-eyed and announced her engagement, talking about all kinds of plans for a big, splashy wedding. Or your parents are looking forward to their golden wedding anniversary, and as the "glue" that binds the family together, you're being looked upon by your brothers and sisters, cousins, aunts and uncles as the natural choice to pull off a big anniversary party. Maybe you're responsible for a long-awaited family reunion, or a reunion of your husband's army buddies, or the annual firefighters' association banquet....

Reasons for throwing a major social event are infinite. The trouble is, pulling together a wedding reception, anniversary party, or reunion can be a complicated affair. Renting and decorating a Toronto area banquet hall, finding entertainment, hiring a caterer, choosing the menu, creating and sending invitations - all take time as well as money; and with the busy schedules we all lead today, it can be a major commitment of energy as well as time and money.

Make it easy on yourself! Contracting with a full-service Toronto area banquet facility which offers event planning expertise can simplify the process immensely, while creating an attractive and festive environment sure to impress the participants. A competent event planner can also guide you through the process of coordinating your event. She can help you develop a budget for your affair, and then present alternatives, including ideas for decor, menus, and entertainment options. While an event planner can't take all the responsibility for your special event off your shoulders, she can certainly save you a lot of wasted time and effort and help you avoid the pitfalls of event planning.

When you're contracting with a Toronto area banquet facility, make sure you take into account the events that need to take place there. A wedding generally has a band, orchestra, or DJ with music and dancing; a reunion or wedding anniversary may need some kind of AV equipment and a projection screen for showing family photos or home movies.

Many brides-to-be want a formal wedding in a church, with a reception to follow in a second location; but others are happy to hold both wedding and reception in the same place, and many facilities provide a wedding chapel or other wedding hall in addition to the reception area. In this instance, the facility event planner can coordinate the entire process, from wedding to reception.

Choosing Banquet Facilities For Toronto Weddings

Arranging for accommodations for out-of-town guests can be an added responsibility. If you've chosen a facility which is part of a hotel, making overnight on-site accommodations for your out-of-town visitors can be a major convenience, both for them and for you; and there's a possibility that you'll be able to arrange for group discounts.

Keep your most important priorities in sight.

Remember, hiring a full-service Toronto area banquet facility and event planner isn't supposed to complicate your life, it's supposed to make it easier. The most important thing is that all of the event's participants - including you - enjoy yourselves. Let the event planner worry; that's what she's hired to do!

Benefits Of A Personal Wedding Website

By Rafi Michael

Setting up your own Toronto wedding website is one of the best decisions you can make when planning your Toronto wedding. You and your wedding guests will both benefit from your choice to create web space dedicated specifically to your Toronto wedding.

Babylon Productions has teamed up with InFrontOfTheLine.com, a leading edge web developer and web host provider in Toronto to create affordable, and customized wedding websites for your Toronto wedding.

A personal wedding website gives you the opportunity to:

Choosing Banquet Facilities For Toronto Weddings

Share your favourite memories! Your wedding guests will love browsing your personal wedding website to see the photos, stories, quizzes/polls and other special details you choose to display. Talk about everything from how you met and your first date to your engagement and future plans.

Your Toronto wedding website also lets your wedding guests do the talking! If you choose to include an online wedding guestbook, your guests can participate by leaving messages that contain their favourite memories of you right on your wedding webpage.

Introduce yourselves! There's no need for anyone to be strangers on your wedding day. With the help of your Toronto wedding website you can easily introduce yourselves, your bridal party, your family and close friends to all of your wedding guests ahead of time.

If you've hired a wedding planner or a bridal consultant, post his or her bio along with a photo on your wedding website too! This is a fantastic way to ensure your guests will feel acquainted and comfortable with this professional on your wedding day.

Eliminate return postage and traditional RSVP cards! Save time and money by taking advantage of the online wedding RSVP capabilities your Toronto wedding website offers. Your wedding guests will appreciate the convenient way in which they may RSVP online through your personal wedding website.

As well, online wedding RSVPs provide enhanced convenience with printable lists, instant stats for your RSVPs, meal selection tracking and much more.

Communicate effectively! Perhaps the most practical purpose of a Toronto wedding website is that it gives you the ability to post all wedding information online in one organized location. This means your guests can refer to a reliable and up-to-date source anytime they want. Your Toronto wedding website will effortlessly convey details that your wedding guests need to know such as:

Gift registry information
Hotel bookings (special rates, reservation codes etc)
Schedules of wedding events
Special requests
Travel accommodations
Backup plans for outdoor weddings
Passport info
Suggested or mandatory dress codes for venues
Maps and directions
Dates, times and addresses
Contact information (emails, cell phone and home phone numbers etc)
Travel agent details (ideal for destination weddings) ...and much more. Remember: Informed guests are happy guests!

And last, but certainly not least...

Enjoy the compliments you'll receive! Your Toronto wedding website is the best way "wow" your wedding guests before your Big Day even arrives!

So let Babylon Weddings
