Everyone Will Want This Product – It Sells Itself

By Kim Klaver

Have you ever heard that line?

When you do, you'll know the speaker is either ignorant or fibbing. So you're being fooled, at best.

Before and After product story example

So how about asking for a woman like you then?

Do you suppose if you put the call out for women like that, you might find some just like you? E.g.

"We're introducing a product for women who have achy knees like I used to, but who don't want to do drugs or surgery, like me. Do you know a woman who might like to know about a product like that?"

Do Achy Backs Really Save Big Buck?

How about that?

Finding women like you.
