Don't Make Your Boat Attractive To The Wrong People

By Bill Wallmuller

Thieves are always on the lookout for easy targets. Don't make yourself and your boat an easy target. Always follow these simple steps:

- Don't leave anything loose in the cockpit or on deck.
- Don't leave your engine key in the ignition - always take it with you.
- Keep your boat keys separate from your engine keys.
- Always keep your boat locked when no one is on board, even for a short time.
- Use strong padlocks or rim locks on all your hatches, entry points and cockpit lockers.
- Also think about having a strongbox down below. If you don't think something is secure, get it fixed.

IMPROVE YOUR SECURITY

Once you've tied up alongside, always do a quick security check before going ashore.

Always:

- Lock anything valuable out of sight in a strong locker secured by a strong padlock.
- Lock up emergency money away from other valuables.

Don't Make Your Boat Attractive To The Wrong People

- Keep your curtains closed so that no-one can look in.

Everything You Know About Paying Your

- And, if you can, check that neighboring boats haven't been broken into as well.
- Keep an eye on other boats, as well as your own.
- Report any strangers at the marina to the harbormaster or yardmaster.
- Don't give your marina access card or key to other people.
- Never tell anyone else the access code to the marina.
- Don't let strangers into the marina, however genuine they may seem.
- Keep the marina gate closed at all times.
