

This Free E-Book is brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!

Dora The Explorer 'Did It!' With Online Games

By Low Jeremy

Are you seeking for a good-quality online game for your kids?

Do you wish to give your children an online game that will not only make them learn but also encourage a fun environment?

If you want the above-mentioned things to happen then why not try exposing your kids to "Dora the Explorer." The online game roots in the animated show "Dora the Explorer." Here is a quick look on what the cartoon show is all about.

The Plot Episodes of Dora the Explorer pursues similar pattern. At the beginning of the show, Dora will have something to accomplish. There are times that she desires to go on somewhere. Normally on an entire episode, Dora will have three locations to travel. The third location is commonly the target area to go for.

During Dora's quest, she will be meeting one of her friends to help her with the episode's pursuit. Dora never fails to overcome the different barriers set forth on each episode. The show will then close with Dora soliciting the spectator's much loved part on the shown episode.

The Characters A seven-year old Latina girl, Dora undertakes numerous tasks. The tasks are relatively easy but packed with hindrances. It is Dora's mission to overcome the challenges set forth on each episode. Dora is never alone with her adventure. She is mostly accompanied with the following main characters:

Boots - he is a sociable and lively monkey. As what every monkey loves, Boots is fond of eating bananas. The name boots was believed to have originated from the monkey's extraordinary red boots. Dora considers Boots as her best pal.

Swiper - he is the villain in Dora the Explorer. He loves to deter Dora's every adventure. He either steals Dora's items to cause obstruction with Dora's pursuit or he appears to one of Dora's destination and will keep on annoying Dora to lengthen the period of her travel.

Dora The Explorer 'Did It!' With Online Games

Diego - he is Dora's reliable cousin who works as an animal rescuer. There are times that Diego goes with Dora's exploration.

Fiesta Trio - these are Dora's cheerleaders - a grasshopper, a frog, and a snail. They become visible whenever Dora triumphantly surpasses her challenges. The Fiesta Trio normally rejoices with festive songs and dances.

Online Games Your kids can enjoy different adventures online with Dora the Explorer. Your children can go along and help Dora and her friends with their quest through "Spooky Forest," "Crocodile Lake," and other awe-inspiring locations.

One major advantage of Dora the Explorer online game is that your child is part of the whole adventure process. Without your child's assistance, Dora will never be able to successfully overcome the obstacles.

Dora the Explorer online game will not only help your child achieve good strategic plans but will also make him appreciate the basics of learning. Moreover, confidence will also build up with this game since your child will have a way to prove that he overcome challenges just like Dora.

Dora the Explorer online game has been receiving positive reviews from parents. Some says that it contributes strategic learning with their kids as they go about with the game. Other appreciates the show for its language and math skills incorporated with music and dynamic activities.

As a parent looking for an exceptional online game, you must try playing Dora the Explorer and see for yourself how she exactly make things happen with your help.

Your kids will mostly tell you, "I did it!" after a Dora the Explorer online game.

This content is provided by Low Jeremy. It may be used only in its entirety with all links included. For more information on dora, wallpapers, websites, information & story, please visit

<http://dora.articlekeep.com>

Dora The Explorer And Her Memorable Songs

By Low Jeremy

For the kids all over the world, watching Dora the explorer is not complete without having to hear the song that Dora sings in every episode. In all of Dora the explorer's journey, children get to enjoy the different kinds of songs that she comes up with depending on the adventure that she is in.

It should not surprise you that your child will be wanting to have his or her own CD with all of Dora's song recorded in them. Children cannot seem to have enough of the songs that they hear everyday when watching Dora. Chances are, they would want those same songs present whenever they want to hear them.

This is the influence that Dora the explorer songs have brought to kids. In any movie or show, there is always a song being sung that you can relate to. This is also the same thing with the songs from Dora the explorer.

Once kids hear them, there is a huge possibility that it will become their favorite song from then on. Being the song for Dora the explorer makes it all the more wanted.

Why are Dora the explorer songs well-liked?

One of the reason is that all the songs from Dora the explorer is especially made for pre-schooler and toddlers. The songs are made to suit their simple tastes and pleasures. These are the kinds of songs that they can easily relate to.

When creating Dora the explorer songs, the composers are taking into account that children should be able to understand them. Since these songs are for them, it is important that what the song is about should be what they do and what they like.

Not only that, Dora the explorer songs are also like an explanation of the journey and the adventure that she is in. You will notice that the songs she sings when she is happy is different from those that are sung whenever she is sad. This shows the emotions that Dora feels on her adventures. And this are the emotions that children are not finding it hard to understand.

It is said that when a song is played over and over again, you can easily memorize the lyrics and the melody that it has. This is the same case with Dora the explorer song. Do not be shocked when you hear your children singing a song in Spanish. Chances are, they are singing one of the songs that they hear from Dora the explorer.

Having the songs in Spanish does not make it any hard for children to understand the message and the melody that the song has. This is a part of their learning experiences. Not only will they learn important values, they also get to have basic Spanish word lesson. This is definitely one thing they will not be able to learn from school.

The popularity of Dora the explorer have made it possible for everyone toddler from any parts of the world to have memorized every word in Dora the explorer songs. By now, they might even have them memorized by heart and can probably sing them word for word when they are watching the show.

So the next time you hear your child sing a song in Spanish, do not fret. They are not really singing something they should not be. They are just singing the songs that they hear from Dora the explorer.

This content is provided by Low Jeremy. It may be used only in its entirety with all links included. For more information on dora, wallpapers, websites, information & story, please visit

<http://dora.articlekeep.com>

This Free E-Book has been brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!