EVA'S WEDDING DAY

By Irvin L. Rozier

EVA'S WEDDING DAY by Irvin L. Rozier

THIS POEM WAS WRITTEN FOR MY DAUGHTER, EVA, UPON HER WEDDING DAY:

EVA'S WEDDING DAY

When you were born, I knew from the start
You were a special girl, near to my heart
Your compassionate spirit and engaging smile
Brightened my days and helped me go another mile
As you grew up and blossomed like a sunflower
You touched many lives as you rose like a tower
I asked God to help you find your calling
Protect you from harm and keep you from falling
From the age of six, you had no mom in your life
Sometimes you were filled with confusion and strife
You didn't let these obstacles stand in your way
And now you are approaching your wedding day
I pray that you and Jack would truly be one
Help each other as your life's race is run
Eva, I'm proud of you as I can be
You are a beautiful woman and dear to me
I love you very much and pray for the best
That God has to offer from the east to the west
May he grant you your heart's wishes
And give you beautiful children to dirty your dishes
Put God in your home and in everything
He will bless you as you put on your wedding ring
Eva and Jack, united as husband and wife
Walk together happily on the path of life.

Important Steps In Your Wedding Program

By Ken Donald

You have probably heard of others who have used one. A wedding program. Do you really need one to manage your upcoming wedding? It all depends on how big a wedding you are planning. A regular wedding has thousands of things and stuff who needs to be taken care of on the right moment. If each thing is not done at the proper time and place, the whole wedding can get side tracked and course a lot of trouble.

You need to take care of wedding invitations in good time before the wedding. The invitation of your guests is very important to get done early in your preparations. Things like wedding flowers for decoration, the wedding dress for the bride, ordering a wedding band perhaps, etc.. The list goes on and on. Planning your wedding can be difficult on a piece of paper. You really need a plan where every aspect has been thought of.

You also have to think about wedding favors, wedding rings and wedding accessories. Not to forget your honeymoon? Where should you go on this special occasion?

You have to think ahead. Try a search on the internet for wedding programs. You can find information in abundance. It is all out there on the internet online: wedding music, wedding photographers, wedding ideas and wedding cakes, etc.

With the wedding process written down on paper step by step, you are in control of the situation. And you know that you can relax and even enjoy the process from beginning of planning and all the way to your grand wedding day.

If your budget is a bit tight and your wedding program must save money where it is possible, you can make your own wedding invitations, and perhaps you know someone who can make the wedding flowers for example. The wedding party could be held at a less expensive place. The great thing about doing many things yourself is the personal touch you wedding will get. Great idea for creative people.

A wedding program is the most important step to stay on track from start to finish. Planning a wedding is no easy task to manage. Get a wedding program, and make that special wedding day perfect.

Thank you for your time.
