Ever Had A Guardian Angel?

By Kirstine Palette

I hear stories all the time about people who were really close to getting in a bad car accident but didn't. Or I hear about people who decided to take a different route into work only to learn that there was a huge accident on their normal route. Many of these people attribute their good fortune to having a trusty guardian angel.

Someone once told me about a time when she only had a small budget to use on groceries for her family. After filling her cart with more items than she thought she could afford, the woman went forward to pay for her items and ended up having spent only a portion of her small budget. How? Because another customer, whom she called her guardian angel, left behind a valuable coupon giving this woman a large percentage off on all her groceries.

Has something like this ever happened to you? Have there been events in your life that have caused you to wonder if you had a guardian angel watching over you?

I used to think people who claimed they had a guardian angel were a bit crazy in the head. I thought that they had gotten out of a rough situation and given the credit to where credit really was not due. That all changed on the day that I was driving home from a trip to Kentucky with a friend.

We had been on the road for hours and were trying to make it a few more hours before we stopped for food or rest. Trying to keep ourselves occupied by singing to our favorite cd's at the top of our lungs, our trip seemed to be going just fine. That is until our car began making a funny noise and then slowing down to a screeching halt on the side of the highway. We were out of gas. Refilling our tank was something we had never discussed in our plans to get home quick. So here we were, two young women in the middle of nowhere with an empty fuel tank. Fortunately for us, a guardian angel was not far behind.

We were miles from an exit in either direction and we had not seen a car pass since we had come to a stop nearly twenty minutes before. Some highway this was. Out of what seemed like nowhere a man driving a truck pulled up behind us and got out to offer assistance. He drove us to the nearest station, filled a small portable tank with gas and then took us back to our car. No sooner had we finished putting the small amount of gas in our car than we turned around to offer him thanks. He, the man, our guardian angel, was nowhere in sight. He and his car had disappeared without either of us hearing or noticing anything. We looked in both directions and saw no evidence of him on the highway. Before this day I would have said a situation like this was a coincidence, but no longer.

Me and my friend had been helped by a guardian angel. And just yesterday I was three cars away from being in a major pileup. Accident? Coincidence? I don't think so. I guess once you've got a guardian angel it never goes away.

Ask Your Angels For Help Prospering by Judi Singleton

Call on your guardian angel and your angel will come. Angels are not allowed to interfere in people's lives unless invited. However, once invited they are more than glad to help. Try it get quiet, calm your emotions. Ask your guardian angel to help you. A simple statement calling your angel like "angel help me", has great power. Then just listen with your eyes closed and the angel will come.

Calm yourself

Pray to the Archangel Raphael in the north, thinking of spring. He is the universal healer and an angel of joy and light. He can be asked to heal the hurt and pain of your stress and of being overwhelmed. Archangel Raphael rules Mercury.

I pray to Archangel Raphael on Wednesday. He rules this day and it seems to intensify the prayer. I surround myself with the color yellow, I burn sandalwood incense. I place Fern, Broom and Aiiweed on the ground in front of me. I usually pray outside for me I feel closer to the angels there. So if the weather permits I just draw a circle in the earth and sit within it.

Pray to the Archangel Uriel in the south, thinking of autumn. He is invoked against suffering and for mental clarity. Uriel is the spirit of ministrations and peace. He helps turn our worst disappointments into our greatest blessings. He is the Archangel of salvation. The ruler over magick, devotion, alchemy, sudden changes, ("The Winds Of Change"), astrology, universal cosmic consciousness, divine order, distribution of power and universal flow, emergencies, judgment, enlightenment and insights. Uriel teaches the path of the heart, the fire of pure Love. Without this pure Love and devotion to Spirit, all spiritual study remains an intellectual pursuit, quick silver. Uriel is the angel of summer and the harvest, he is said to be the angel of the earth. So he can help you bring your prayers to earth. I think of Uriels colors violet, white, indigo, blue, silver and rainbow.

You can make up your own innovations. I keep my innovations simple I simply call the angels names like a chant.

As a planetary angel, Archangel Michael rules abundance, money, and growth. Use gold and yellow colours/candles/cloth/flowers, a sun symbol, and a piece of gold. As a planetary angel, Archangel Raphael rules business, contracts, and buying and selling. Use orange coloured items, a Mercury symbol {winged sandals}, and some quicksilver {mercury in a thermometer} and aluminum. The planetary angel Sadkiel rules prosperity, expansion, generosity, banks, and loans. Use something coloured electric blue, a symbol of Jupiter and some tin or zinc. I keep my innovations simple I chant the name of the angel seeing them come into my life. I imagine their colors. Once I am relaxed I begin to call on the name of the angel Michael.

Do this daily for thirty days and your life will change.
