Ten Things You Should Know Before Buying

By Michelle Andrews

The following is a list of characteristics you should look for in a good, educational toy:

3.Self-expression: Will the toy allow your child to express himself, be creative, and make choices?

7.Flexibility: Does it have adjustable volume, speed, and level of difficulty?

10.Safety and durability: Is the toy durable, considering your child's age and strength? Is it safe?
