FALSE PROPHET OF THE ANTI-CHRIST EXPOSED

By Mark B. Replogle

FALSE PROPHET OF THE ANTI-CHRIST EXPOSED by Mark B. Replogle

Pastor Juan Ortiz with Occludado Hermanadad, of Mexico, predicted John Kerry would be the new president of the United States in 2004. Over 30,000 people on the Internet read about his claim that God told him to make this prophecy. They all now know that pastor Ortiz is a false prophet of the anti-Christ.

Some of my readers were biblically astute and kind enough to share their insights with me. I will use two emails I received to illustrate the use of test number four to determine who is a false prophet. That test is; does the Holy Spirit within you bear witness to the truth of what the prophet has said?

Ms. A wrote, "I am a Catholic convert, and see Kerry as an evil man". Mr. V wrote, "The gift of prophecy should not bring vain attention. If someone is truly given prophetic information they know that the information is only to be used to help the world come closer to Christ. How does announcing who will win do this?"

The Holy Spirit is God. He is absolutely holy and just. He lives within the heart of every true believer of Jesus Christ. Moreover, God tells us at John 16:13-15, says "But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you".

You have doubtless heard people say that they have a witness in their spirit about something. Such sayings really do have a basis in reality and scripture. When you hear a prophet claim to give a word from God, then one way to determine its origin is to ask yourself does your spirit give you peace or a thumbs up to that voice? If the prophet did hear from God, then the Holy Spirit within you will be telling your spirit that indeed the prophet did hear from God. The Holy Spirit will give peace to your spirit.

If the prophet did not hear from God, then the Holy Spirit within you will be speaking warning to your spirit. That is why you sometimes hear people say that they have a check in their spirit about something.

So you can see Ms. A's spirit was telling her that Kerry was evil. Mr. V's spirit correctly informed him that such a prediction resulted in pastor Ortiz getting the glory rather than King Jesus Christ.

JOHN KERRY WINS ELECTION, PREDICTS CHRISTIAN PROPHET

JOHN KERRY WINS ELECTION, PREDICTS CHRISTIAN PROPHET by Mark B. Replogle

Pastor Juan Ortiz with Occludado Hermandad, of Mexico, made this prediction on October 14, 2004. Forget the poll numbers and debates, God has told him who the new president of the United States will be this November. This bold prediction has sparked much heated debate within the Christian Church about prophecy and whether God really speaks to any man or woman today. There are even some people saying that to question Pastor Ortiz' prediction amounts to racism and is judgmental.

No one disputes that a prophet can make a correct prediction of a future event. So when that future event comes to pass as predicted, is that prophet a true prophet? Everyone knows the answer is; not necessarily. This is because in Deuteronomy chapter 13, verses 1–5, the Bible tells us that the false prophet is the one who after making a correct prediction of a future event, then attempts to have other people worship a God other than the God of the Old Testament, who is the Father of Jesus Christ. Thus, the prediction is secondary to the call to worship God.

So a prophet can make a correct prediction of a future event, and then try to get other people to worship a god other than the god of the Bible. The Bible tells us the reason God allows this to happen is because he wants to see whether His people are really loyal to Him. If they went ahead with that false prophet to worship some other god, then those people would have broken the first two Commandments. Those state that God's people shall have no other gods beside Him, and they shall not worship any other god. Thus, there is no such thing as diversity of faith traditions. Period.

Assume by some aberration of nature John Kerry doesn't win the 2004 presidential election. Is Pastor Ortiz then a false prophet? Most Christians and non-Christians alike would say "Yes". Their support for this contention is found in Deuteronomy chapter 18, verses 14–22. That passage basically says that if what a prophet claims that God told him does not come to pass, then that prophet lied. God didn't say any such thing. Back in those days, that prophet would then have earned the right to be stoned to death. Showing that there really are different standards for weathermen and prophets.

BOTTOM LINE: Does God still talk to men and women today? I mean really talk to sane people, with an audible voice? If so what does the voice of God sound like? What about people in other faith traditions, doesn't God speak to them to? All great questions and I have the answers to them in my new book called HOW TO HEAR AND DISCERN THE VOICE OF GOD.
