First date kiss

By Linda Crowford

Without a doubt, a first date kiss is an important time for a woman. Most women love kissing and if they can find the perfect kiss, that is even better. Some women do not kiss on the first date, which is perfectly fine. However, if you do not mind kissing on the first date, you dream of something great and memorable!

French Kiss

The French kiss is sensual and exciting. Such a kiss can make your love and desire catch fire. French kissing has as much powerful effect as striking a match on the prairie covered with straw, in the summer heat, when the sunset sets the sky ablaze.

French kiss definition: an explosive surge in a fire occurring when 2 pairs of lips are suddenly mixed with a combustible desire.

How to be sensual and the best in the most intimate kiss...

- i½ Get a sensual mouth. Brush and floss your teeth. Drink water. A fresh and healthy kiss is the most erotic French kiss.
- i½ Clean hair and body. Shave, after-shave. Shower and shampoo.
- i½ Look at your partner innocently or dominantly
- i½ Get closer and kiss softly
- i½ Begin gently licking your lover on the lips
- i½ Feel the responding satin tongue roaming your mouth
- i½ Visit your partner's mouth, slowly.
- i½ Time after time, get deeper and more intimate.
- i½ The best French kiss takes time.
- i½ Push your tongue into your partner's mouth, or let you lead
- i½ Don't give your mouth all of a sudden.
- i½ Don't take over your partner's mouth immediately. Let the fire spread slowly.
- i½ Show resistance, to get more desire.

First date kiss

½ Close your eyes and let you blown away in the wind of passion

½ Bite your partner's lip with your teeth. Gently.

½ Look at your partner lovingly.

How to fan the flames...

½ When you stop to breathe in, let your breath caresses your partner's face in a murmur like the embers caressed by the wind

½ Close down the kiss shortly to provoke frustration and get an immediate back-draft

½ Play with your hands. Press your bust, your body against your lover's

½ Sensual sounds. Intimate moans. Press your body closer.

½ Arouse desire. Increase your breathe, and share your excitement.

½ Passionate French kiss. Take and give everything immediately, and spread like a sensual explosion.

½ Let your hands wander away, run your fingers through your lover's hair, caress shoulder, back, breast..

½ Feel the skin on the forearm, the inside is more sensitive ½ Go under the shirt without being invited, travel on the back and front, and get as intimate as you can.

½ Press your body against your lover's and let the fire break out inside...

A first date kiss should be something simple yet special. When a woman steps out on that first date, typically in the back of her mind, she is wondering if a kiss will end the date. There is nothing wrong with a first date kiss although it should not be something over the top. Generally, a woman does not mind a soft, gentle kiss to end the night. Even for the woman who does not generally kiss on the first date, if the kiss is something soft, gentle, and simple, she does not mind.
