From the Dumb Majority

From the Dumb Majority by Malcolm James Pugh

From the Dumb Majority.

Gifted others will tell the nation,
And annotate the slippery specifics,
Of the lying, deceit and fabrication,
Half hidden in statistical hieroglyphics,
The stark fact is that here instead
Of it being hard to find the faults,
They are incessantly raising their heads,
Those not tucked away in time vaults,
No, it is not purely and simply lies,
Or the incompetence that has occurred,
It is more the assumption we are dumb,
And simple, too brainless for words,

We will tell them some glib fairy tale,
That would not even fool a troll,
And dress it all up, have it regale,
Like some burlesque talking doll,
And they will swallow it all in,
For they are gullible and easy led,
They will surely quickly fall in,
And take the bait that we have fed,
And so it eventually came to pass,
That they deemed us so enthralled,
So overcome by their Quatermass,
That they could tell us anything at all.

From the Dumb Majority

But now surprise, we hear your lies,
But now shock, we see your face,
We can feel the deceit materialise,
And smell the policies put in place,
And the odour is unpleasant,
The sight is quite grotesque,
They are ruining the present,
Making the future Kafkaesque,
For lo, we see, we hear, we smell,
We touch, and yes we taste,
But amazingly we think as well,
And perceive we believed in haste,
We trusted those who should be truthful,

Accepted their promises and explanations,
Gave benefit of doubt when they were youthful,
And forgave their strange aberrations,

Now we find this trust misplaced,
What we believed in was a sham,
Not honourable but two faced,
Not a planned future but a scam,
Who is looking more stupid now,
That the dominoes have started,
We will soon show them how,
Their lessons have been imparted,
For we are not devoid of intellect,
We just wanted to believe their schemes,
We wanted to trust those we elect,
Wanted to share in their dreams,
We are not imbeciles to be fed spin,
When buried bodies rematerialise,
We all know when we see sins,
We all know when we hear lies,
We all know that waste is waste,
Know borrowing has a payback day,
Know now that lying bare faced,
Is the theme of His third way,
Know being paid for canal watching,
Whilst manufacturing out sources and dies,
Is just another means of botching,
Another affront to our eyes,
We all know credit at the core,
Is a sure way to debt and sorrow,
Yet we applaud a chancellor,

Who is over hocked to tomorrow,
Who under borrows year on year,
And fills the hole with more loans,
Come next year he will have no fear,
But we will lose our homes,
For funding his economy on tick,
In a headlong lemming surge,
He is counting on this trick,
He is feeding on this urge,
When we come to pay this back,
Will he be there to lend a hand,
Or will he be borrowing in the outback,
Whilst we struggle on in our own land.

We have waited long in patience,
Hoping against hope they are cool,
But it has turned to pure impatience,
When they treat us as if fools,

And take our seeming calm compliance,
As if a tacit, if dumb, approval,
When it is a menacing angry quiet,
Merely awaiting their removal.

It is criminal to deliberately lie,
To those who trusted you their future,
To take away their blue skies,
To leave a wound without a suture,
To paint a glorious valhalla sunset,
After an epic adventure so exciting,
To promise that we will all get,
Whatever we would take delight in,
To prey even on our very dreams,
And whisper they can be fulfilled,
Telling us to trust in what it seems,
To partake in what is billed,
And weave a talismanic illusion,
Wrapped in candy floss by elves,
Which has now slipped into confusion,
As we slowly realised ourselves,
That the reality is as it always was,
But while we were in there dreaming,
He was trying to make Himself a God,
He was lying and He was scheming,
Thankfully now we are awakening,

Whilst He is into disintegration,
We will have to try to rebuild,
What He has left us of our nation,
The cruelty is in the fostering,
Of a future in a golden land,
He has ruined via his posturing,
He has trampled on our plans
He had promised us Houdini like,
A miraculous escape from strife,
But after the great illusionist,
Life here is still life.

Free Marketing Tips

Dumb Excuse #1

"I'm not sure I want to invest any money in my internet business right now."

Yes, it's sad to say but I hear this one from time to time. Let me be very frank with you. If you've already checked out my own top search rankings and still don't quite understand just what a top search engine ranking would mean for your business, then you have some more learning to do! Please come back and see me when you realize it can make you millions per year!

Dumb Excuse #2

"I don't have enough time to learn how to promote my website."

The time investment needed to see dramatic results is about 90 days although you'll see improvement immediately. Yep, just 90 days of working a few hours each day is going to give you a lot more visitors that you can sell! In fact, if your product sells already, then you are guaranteed success because you'll be getting a lot more traffic and more traffic means more money when you already are selling it. If you can follow simple directions, then you will do very well following my plan. If you would just rather have personal coaching every step of the way just click here for information on this.

Now here are the three dumb excuses that really piss me the most. They make my blood boil. They infuriate me! And these excuses are only given by people who have no understanding whatsoever of what it takes to achieve success in anything. They just haven't figured it out yet.

From the Dumb Majority

"I'm going to wait to get your book until... (insert favorite excuse here).

These people are just procrastinators plain and simple. They will think of every excuse in the world why they just can't make a decision and get started right away. I get emails from these people all the time telling me that they intend to get my book just as soon as Mercury, Venus, Mars, and Saturn come into perfect alignment or some other nonsense. If a person isn't willing to take action after seeing the PROOF that my techniques work then I just can't help them either because they just don't get it and probably never will. They are literally losing money every day they delay.

Dumb Excuse #4

"I've seen your results for your own website and you are certainly #1 for your terms, but I sell lingerie and that's a totally different product. Your methods probably won't work for me."

These people are the worst, because they've done the research and they've seen me at number one, but they still think that somehow it will only work for "car wax" or something! I usually get smart with these people and tell them. Yep, my techniques only work for "car wax". In fact, it's all a big scam. I got my website to #1 for "car wax" just so I could sell suckers this information...Arrrgh! My techniques will work for ANY website. In fact, I've never seen it fail to work yet!

Dumb Excuse #5

"My webmaster told me that he's promoting my site to 7,000 different search engines this week and that very soon my site will be at the top of the search engines and getting millions of hits!"

If your webmaster told you something like this...then to put it as nicely as I can, they don't have your best interests in mind. Actually, forget being nice: if they told you this then they are either completely ignorant of reality or they just are ripping you off! These are the people that just take your money and provide worthless services that don't do ANYTHING for you. The worst part is that they KNOW they don't work, but they take your money anyway!
