Great Audi Parts

By Myra Johnson

In the last few years, Audi vehicles have become more and more popular. It is thought that Audi might even surpass Mercedes and be behind BMW. Here is a look at the best selling Audi accessories. You can be up to date and in style with the following accessories.

1. Custom Tail Lights. Altezza [or Euro] these lights are still popular. The parts look the best on older model Audis including the 90 and the 200.
2. Car Covers. Ask any owner of a classic Audi how they maintain their car's appearance and they will tell you: wash, wax, and cover. Washing and waxing alone are not enough. Keeping your car's paint protected can only be fulfilled by covering it with a custom fitted car cover.
3. Hood Protector: You can protect your grille and give your vehicle a special look with a custom fitted car cover. You can certainly choose one that is durable and designed for the exact Audi model you have.
4. Wheel Protectors. They can keep your tires looking great and keep your wheels looking shiny.
5. Performance Chips. A performance chip can help your engine run smoother and more efficiently without taking away from fuel economy.
6. Performance Exhaust. Many brands like Borla have come up with replacement exhaust systems that can help your car produce more power, have greater torque, and it could also increase your fuel economy. You also get a one million mile warranty.

So as you can see, Audi has really made a name for itself with its award winning Quattro and long leader in handling. If you own an Audi it is certain that it will give you many years of joyful driving. You can change your Audi the way you want with quality performance and replacement parts sold through online wholesalers. So make your new Audi unique as you are.

The Classic Audi Q7

By Keith Hernandez

The Audi Q7 has an overall sleek and exquisite look to it. When it was first introduced people quickly took a liking to it. It is not surprising since this vehicle has many luxury options. This will be quite helpful if you have a big family. The vehicle does not only give you luxury and comfort but great style all at the same time.

The Q7 has a sporty look to it, which makes it quite appealing to many people. The Audi Q7 SUV has a grill that looks great with the painted horizontal strip. Since the grill is narrow it looks less overpowering. The Q7 has a lot of the same features as the Audi Avants. Some of the same features are the high shoulder line, the sloping roofline and many more. All of the features are what make the Audi Q7 classy and sporty all at the same time. The rear bumper gives better function to the turn signals as well as the rear fog lights.

The Q7 even has a third row seating as an extra option, which can come in handy if you have a big family. The center row can fold back down and slide forward. This can give you better and more space in seating. The third row can fold flat completely on the floor when you are not using it. Not only does this option give you more seating in the vehicle it can also allow for more space to store items on those long road trips.

Go and check out the Audi Q7 and experience the class and exquisiteness that it can offer. It just might be what you and your family are looking for. It gives you a sporty look, but can still be functional for the whole family, which makes everyone happy.
