Healing Hounds

By Jack Russell

Dogs are man's best friend. Always loyal and ever loving, this trait has made canines an integral and common part of what is fast becoming a common mode of therapy in many health care facilities. Not just dogs but animals in general have long been recognized as having a positive effect on the healing process. Dogs, especially, have a calming effect.

These dogs help people cope with emotional issues, offer physical contact, invoke pleasant memories and they divert a person's focus from the problems of the day. That's why they've been used to great success as helpers for those people who are in therapy. Dogs are specially trained for their jobs of helping to take care of the sick, the elderly or the infirm. Currently there are three types of therapy dogs:

- a) Facility Therapy Dogs
- b) Animal-Assisted Therapy Dogs
- c) Therapeutic Visitation Dogs

The first two types assist physical therapists by meeting the requirements for a person's recovery. They are usually found in hospitals and are permanently assigned there. The most common type of therapeutic dog, however, is the third type.

Therapeutic visitation dogs are ordinary pets whose owners take to hospitals, nursing homes and rehabilitation facilities. These dogs help people who are away from home due to mental or physical illness. These people are usually in a highly stressful or depressing environment and a visit from a therapy dog can always brighten their day and help them deal with their problems.

Through their bright example, these dogs help the people they meet maintain a positive attitude. This positive outlook is important in good health, happiness and staying young. Pets also provide a chance for patients to touch and be touched. This gives the patients a chance to express their need for physical contact, a need that doctors have proven as a very important factor in a patient's psychological health.

This is integral in helping people maintain a better mental standing on their condition. This and the ever-loving nature of dogs make them perfect cures to depression that often plagues many patients and residents of nursing homes and hospitals.

It's very difficult to accurately measure how positive an effect these dogs have on patients. But all you have to do to see that they're doing their job is a happy smile on a patient's face when they're in the company of one of these amazing healing hounds.

God's Eight Healing Delivery Vehicles

By Dr. Jay Snell

You can be healed and there are "Eight Healing Delivery Vehicles" God will use to do it for you. One of these ways requires no faith on the part of the one being healed. This is healing by the anointing.

The other seven requires one of more acts of faith on the part of the one being healed and/or the one ministering the healing. Of these two, faith is by far the most dependable.

Oral Roberts said that you can not always depend upon the anointing to heal you, but you can depend upon faith.

T. L. Osborn said that you can not always depend upon the anointing to heal you, but you can depend upon faith.

The anointing is wonderful when God works it but He works it in a sovereign way. In other words, you have no control nor power over it.

God heals with it when He chooses and does not heal with it when He does not choose to heal this way. When the anointing is operating, faith may not be required at all on the part of the one being healed.

Faith, on the other hand, will always come through for you. Both the famous men of God mentioned above are mighty men of faith. They know first hand what they are talking about.

Healing Hounds

They have seen God miraculously heal with His anointing in their meetings. They have also seen God miraculously heal in response to faith in their meetings.

As we said previously, of the eight ways God heals his children, only one of them doesn't necessarily require faith: healing by the anointing.

All the other seven require faith. In many, many great healing meetings held around the world today, those who are not healed can still be healed by faith when the anointing passed them by.

Remember this: in most of these meetings, the anointing will pass by a great many of those needing healing, leaving them still not healed.

They still can be healed! Yes! They can still be healed!

Healing Delivery Vehicle #1 God delivers your healing through his anointing (Acts 19: 11–12) and the gifts of healing (1 Corinthians 12: 8–11).

Healing Delivery Vehicle #2 God delivers your healing through the laying on of hands. Mark 16:18

Healing Delivery Vehicle #3 God delivers your healing with his anointing oil combined with the prayer of faith. Mark 6:13

Healing Delivery Vehicle #4 God delivers your Healing by your believing and then speaking his Word. Mark 11:23

Healing Delivery Vehicle #5 God delivers your Healing through the agreement on earth by two or more people. Matt 18:19–20

Healing Delivery Vehicle #6 God delivers your Healing by your believing that you receive it when you pray. Mark 11:24

Healing Delivery Vehicle #7 God delivers your healing through the LORD's Supper when you understand it and receive it by faith. 1 Cor 11:26–30

Healing Delivery Vehicle #8 God delivers your healing through using Jesus' Name like a battering ram and a sledge hammer. John 14:13–14

These Eight Healing Delivery Vehicles God left us in His Word to help his children get their healing can be worked by anyone. Thank God you do not have to be a theologian. You do not have to be an elder. You do not have to be a pastor. You do not have to be a deacon.

These Eight Delivery Vehicles work! Just make up your mind to work them and then do it. Supernatural things will happen for you.
