How to Choose the Perfect Hairstyles for your Face

by: Donna Monday

There must be a million and one ways to style our hair.

Believe it or not, a hairstyle can help to accentuate or draw away from certain facial characteristics.

The following are tips on styles that can make the most of your particular features:

Face Too Round – Putting a side part in the hair will slim and lengthen a face that's too round.

Thin Face – Curls or fullness at the sides will widen a long, thin face.

Large Nose – A full hairstyle or upswept crown makes the nose less noticeable.

Sharp, Angular Features – A wavy or curly hairstyle will soften a chiseled cheekbone, nose or jaw.

High forehead – A horizontal line of full bangs can cover the forehead, balancing the face.

Narrow Chin – Long hair with fullness at the chin will balance a narrow chin.

Low Forehead – Vertical lines and soft fullness at the crown can lengthen the face.
