Is AGE REVERSAL possible?

Is AGE REVERSAL possible? by Ina Bliss

The answer is a resounding "YES!"

How does it work? I tell you, if you promise to check it out...

Part 1 – It began when I read...

...well-known author Deepak Chopra's book "Ageless Body, Timeless Mind" (1). In his words, "My body is new at every moment. I, the seer, am immune to aging. Everything in my body is under direct control of my awareness. I am constantly renewing."

And, as you can imagine, when you just lost over 70 pounds of ugly weight, it just sometimes does not look that easy to shape what's left into statue, get the skin tight and the essential parts to lift up again.

Since my wallet was also not in such great shape for the ambitious plans I always seem to have, I read "A Happy Pocket Full of Money" (2), by David Cameron Gikandi. "The Science of getting Rich" (3), by Walles D Wattles, followed suit.

Only after devouring these astounding facts & ideas yourself can you possibly understand how they transformed my life in many, many ways. They not only opened up the possibility of achieving what I had planned. They actively worked on my perspective on business and its formerly complex tasks to now easily create wealth.

It's the truth: Once you elevate your thoughts, all things become so much simpler. Even better, once your thoughts are deeply planted, the answer in its materialized form is being attracted to you, and occasionally walks right through your front-door, or shows up in your Inbox.

Part 2 – My perfect Vision formed.

Encouraged by the possibilities, I made my plans as complete as I could. If I was to accomplish something this difficult, it might as well be perfect.

Let me just give you an excerpt of the affirmed outlook I developed for my physical state of being (at age 52):

"I have a healthy firm, well-shaped athletic body with flawless baby skin, long, thick, shiny, naturally light brown hair, healthy finger and toe nails, straight white teeth and 20/20 vision."

How sure do you think I was when I first formulated that phrase?

Looking around, we are all falling apart when we hit the HUGE five-zero, aren't we? After my latest accident, in which I was thrown off the Polaris Magnum 4-wheeler into the sand as we hit a knife-blade sand dune and the vehicle turned over, landing on us, I had the feeling I was incapable of healing for weeks.

Just minutes prior to that I had felt invincible...Never mind the wrinkles, thinning gray, yet colored hair, second and third chin, and the eyes getting lost in the seemingly broadening face...

Nevertheless, all I did starting the day I had that clear statement all written down and memorized was repeat it over and over to myself, standing in line, riding in the back of the BMW bike, brushing my teeth...

Part 3 – My Vision is coming true...

...after 10 days ago a message arrived via email. It was about some 'Magic Oil' and 'Magic Water'(4) which due to a magnificent discovery of fourth level energy described by quantum physics transform the human body in such distinct processes that potentially no one has to age at all any more. The unthinkable miracle is here.

The best thing about this message was how inexpensive these effective long-lasting liquids are. Upon my ordering the 'Magic Oil' only so I would make sure it really works before ordering the others, (I could not wait to hold it in my hands,) I immediately sprayed it on the roots of my hair and on my face. I have not since had to use a facial moisturizer, and my wrinkles are diminishing. I watch them while they simply go away.

The gray hair first becomes darker gray, and then disappears. Yes, even the short part of the roots that is already visible returns to youthful.

Along with this small order also came a great gift. A little sack of 'Precious Prills', whose function is to clean up any water FOR LIFE. Since I have been drinking it, my body is better hydrated, and perpetually cleansed. I actually looked younger already on my first day of usage.

My next purchase will include the 'Magic Water', a liquid that is better for human tissue to absorb and switches, either to go into the soft tissue, or into the bones, wherever it is needed.

I don't want to get into all the reasons for all of this, but have with my own eyes seen the improvement in just 2 days. As far as I understand, it's the known deficiency on Magnesium that we all face, which depletes the DHEA and DHEAS levels and makes us age. Magnesium taken orally causes unpleasant reactions, if above 350mg. The way one can apply the magic of these liquids finally remedies this lack of Magnesium AND REVERSES THE AGING in your body.

All I can visualize for the future are these statements:

Is AGE REVERSAL possible?

No more dentists and opticians needed. No more detergent used. Bottled water is obsolete. Pool and hot tub chemicals a thing of the past. Cut flowers stand fresh for over 2 weeks. Pain pills unnecessary....

What a way of experiencing your vision!

AGE REVERSAL IS POSSIBLE. IT'S BEING DONE RIGHT NOW.

Using Candlestick Patterns In A Range Bound And Trending Markets

By Action Forex

In a range bound market – meaning a market that does not possess a clear directional trend, but rather moves back and forth between support and resistance – traders are essentially looking to short at the top of the range, and buy at the bottom of the range. It is worth noting that this strategy often results in limited profits, as it does not seem to rely on identifying a trend. Nevertheless it can be useful in capturing many small moves for the trader who can maintain discipline and self-control while trading this strategy.

Traders should start by identifying a range bound market.

Once the market is identified to be range bound, traders should look for oscillators suggesting overbought/oversold levels at support and/or resistance.

Traders should then look for a candlestick pattern that also suggests a reversal at the top/bottom of the market's range. When this has been identified, traders can enter once the reversal is confirmed.

Using Candlestick Patterns in Trending Markets

Using candlestick patterns to trade trending markets can be an extremely useful tool to profit from exchange rate movement. The process is simple:

Identify the overall trend

Look for a retracement

Look for a candlestick pattern to confirm a reversal at the retracement level

The candlestick pattern serves to confirm the fact that the market is acknowledging the importance of the retracement level. Traders should look to enter the position just outside of the reversal candle's range. At that point, there is sufficient reason to believe that the retracement is over and that the primary trend is ready to resume.
