

This Free E-Book is brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!

Ivey School Of Business

By Thomas Champeval

The Western University of Ontario is located in right in the economic grandeur of Forest City. It is one of the oldest and most respected universities in Canada. It was founded in 1878 by Bishop Isaac Hellmuth and the Anglican Diocese of Huron. The 155 hectares of land area down the banks of Thames River. The teaching faculty is composed of about 1,164 members. There are approximately 29,000 students enrolled in the undergraduate and graduate studies. The university has over 60 various degree programs and diploma programs from its 12 faculties and schools and 3 affiliated colleges.

Situated in the campus of Western University of Ontario, the Richard Ivey School of Business offers a different kind of learning experience. The university gives more than a learning experience but offers the fundamentals of living and socializing combined all together. It is a community that builds a bond that lasts a lifetime. It is the mission of the school to mold future business leaders that can think globally and act deliberately in order to promote business development and otherwise. It ranks second to Harvard Business School as the biggest producer of case studies and tops the world in Asian case studies. This is only proof that the school is committed to quality education and produces top-notch graduates.

The Richard Ivey School of Business will integrate the new method of management education known as the Cross-Enterprise Leadership in 2006. The objective of the aforementioned method is to enable students to develop the ability to foresee, evaluate, and plan on the acts of going through and solving certain issues of the entire business. Among these issues are globalization, competition, productivity and innovation. The Cross-Enterprise Leadership gets away with the traditional method of management education that puts emphasis on the functional discipline such as the finance, accounting, marketing and strategy. It promotes simulations and field projects to allow students to think and act strategically on business decisions. It promotes a decision based on the entirety of the business issue and not as individual bits and pieces.

Also, in 2006, the MBA program will be offering its students a one-year program available in the months of May and October. The MBA program of Ivey was considered by Business Week in August 1, 2005 as among the 4 best MBA programs in "creativity and innovation" with a "nontraditional approach urging students to learn business from all angles". Such recognition encourages the university to continue and improve their MBA programs and make them more competitive and practical for the real world. The new MBA program is suitable for a cluster of students with great performance with a management experience. It is also ideal for students that can cope up with the demanding one-year program. International exposure and a career management-training module are included in the MBA curriculum. The regular in-class learning take up to 4 hours, it can be at 8 am to 12 noon or 1:30 pm to 5:30 pm. The period for learning team sessions out of the class are scheduled.

For information about MBA degrees, programs and MBA schools in Canada, such as the Richard Ivey School of Business, please visit

<http://www.canadianmba.com>

, the official MBA Canada site.

Canada: The Place To Make That First Step In Your Business Career

By Thomas Champeval

The third of the biggest financial center in North America is actually located in Toronto, Canada. Consequently, Canada has been one of the more progressive countries that boast off its stable economy. Canada offers diverse business opportunities equaling to other international cities like London and New York. Toronto ranked as the 14th among the other countries in the globe as being the best place to live and to have an education.

Canada is home to different top management and business schools such as Haskayne School of Business in University of Calgary, HEC Montreal, Richard Ivey School of Business in Western University of Ontario, John Molson School of Business in Concordia University, McGill's University Faculty of Management, Rotman's Business School in University of Toronto, Sauder School of Business in University of British Columbia, and Schulich School of Business in York University. The aforementioned business schools are the top 9 business schools in Canada. These business schools are internationally accredited by different prime accreditation institutions and ranks among the top business schools and MBA programs in the world.

Aside from the world-class large-scale business schools, Canada also offers small-scale schools with almost the same quality with that of local universities. Different students can choose in the wide array of business schools according to their preference including the location of the school, atmosphere and space as well as varying school fees.

Canada's MBA programs are ideal for people from all parts of the globe. This is mainly because Canada business schools can accommodate students with diverse racial backgrounds. Most business schools in Canada offers French and Spanish MBA programs. The International MBA program of Schulich allows students to develop the other major global business languages German, Japanese and Mandarin. Regional languages such as Portugese, Hindi, Tagalog, Korean, Cantonese, Serbo-Croatian and Russian have also been included. This only shows that quality education knows no racial boundaries.

Canada is home to a myriad of international companies, an MBA education will surely take ones career to the next level. Canada offers a multicultural type of education to accommodate students with different nationalities who seeks their dream in business. The exposure to varying cultures gives students a global perspective and takes part in their professional and personal development.

Studying and taking an MBA program in Canada is highly recommended by different international institutions. The country promotes a good quality of living condition, remarkable education, top of the line health care, and notable safety and security. The country is rich in different heritages and a culture that people all around the world will surely enjoy.

Canada is a place that is conducive to learning on a global perspective. The way of life in is perfect in catering to different nationalities mainly its offers a number of institutions that can accommodate the growing need of students for quality learning. Canada is home to a booming business industry that makes it the perfect place to start a business education, and consequently, a thriving business career.

For information about MBA programs, degrees and MBA schools in Canada, such please visit

<http://www.canadianmba.com>

, the official Canadian MBA programs site.

This Free E-Book has been brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!