

This Free E-Book is brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!

John Molson School Of Business

By Thomas Champeval

Joining the cluster of respectable universities in Montreal, Quebec is Concordia University. It was originally founded in 1974. The university has over 180 undergraduate programs under 4 faculties including Arts and Science, Engineering and Computer Science, Fine Arts and John Molson School of Business. The School of Graduate Studies has over 70 programs that lead to a master's and doctoral degrees, graduate diplomas and certificates.

Montreal is an ideal place to have an MBA degree because of the wide array of international organizations that students can join in. This way they can acquire a wider perspective of the business industry. Montreal is constantly ranked as one of the top places to live based on the value of life standards. The community, being diverse in culture, cultivates an individual on global awareness. The city is truly one good place to start a business career.

The John Molson MBA is a program that promotes complete learning experience with a challenging curriculum that is continually redesigned to meet the demand and necessities of the employers. It develops students to have strong bond with business community and presents different ways for the student to be concerned with industry. The school was already accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), which is one of the prime business school accreditation organization. The faculty members of the school came from best institutions across the globe and hold the highest per capita research output among faculties in Quebec.

In order to promote effective teaching, the number of students per class is at the minimum with a ratio of 30 students per professor. The low number of students per class builds a more learning conducive environment. The John Molson MBA program is aimed to give students a universal management degree with a wide general idea of business administration to those with a non-commerce degree background. The school has about 40,000 graduates with a lot of which hold key management positions all over the world. The alumni network stays associated for life. All of the students of the MBA program are exposed to different international job experience. Students are geared up for global business relations in a multi-cultured environment.

The John Molson MBA is a program is available as part time and full time. The part time students are not allowed to take up over 6 credits in each of the fall and the winter term. The present least amount of credits that a part time student can take is 12 per calendar year. They can take up additional credits in by taking it during the summer term. The class schedule is usually during Mondays to Thursdays. A day and evening class schedule are available in order to accommodate both the part time and the full time students. During the summer term, there are only schedule for the evening: 5:45 pm to 8:15 pm or 8:30 pm to 11 pm. These are available two times a week for the whole six weeks of the term.

For information about MBA programs and MBA schools in Canada, such as the John Molson School of Business, please visit

<http://www.canadianmba.com>

, the official site for MBA programs in Canada.

Canada: The Place To Make That First Step In Your Business Career

By Thomas Champeval

The third of the biggest financial center in North America is actually located in Toronto, Canada. Consequently, Canada has been one of the more progressive countries that boast off its stable economy. Canada offers diverse business opportunities equaling to other international cities like London and New York. Toronto ranked as the 14th among the other countries in the globe as being the best place to live and to have an education.

Canada is home to different top management and business schools such as Haskayne School of Business in University of Calgary, HEC Montreal, Richard Ivey School of Business in Western University of Ontario, John Molson School of Business in Concordia University, McGill's University Faculty of Management, Rotman's Business School in University of Toronto, Sauder School of Business in University of British Columbia, and Schulich School of Business in York University. The aforementioned business schools are the top 9 business schools in Canada. These business schools are internationally accredited by different prime accreditation institutions and ranks among the top business schools and MBA programs in the world.

Aside from the world–class large–scale business schools, Canada also offers small–scale schools with almost the same quality with that of local universities. Different students can choose in the wide array of business schools according to their preference including the location of the school, atmosphere and space as well as varying school fees.

Canada's MBA programs are ideal for people from all parts of the globe. This is mainly because Canada business schools can accommodate students with diverse racial backgrounds. Most business schools in Canada offers French and Spanish MBA programs. The International MBA program of Schulich allows students to develop the other major global business languages German, Japanese and Mandarin. Regional languages such as Portugese, Hindi, Tagalog, Korean, Cantonese, Serbo–Croatian and Russian have also been included. This only shows that quality education knows no racial boundaries.

Canada is home to a myriad of international companies, an MBA education will surely take ones career to the next level. Canada offers a multicultural type of education to accommodate students with different nationalities who seeks their dream in business. The exposure to varying cultures gives students a global perspective and takes part in their professional and personal development.

Studying and taking an MBA program in Canada is highly recommended by different international institutions. The country promotes a good quality of living condition, remarkable education, top of the line health care, and notable safety and security. The country is rich in different heritages and a culture that people all around the world will surely enjoy.

Canada is a place that is conducive to learning on a global perspective. The way of life in is perfect in catering to different nationalities mainly its offers a number of institutions that can accommodate the growing need of students for quality learning. Canada is home to a booming business industry that makes it the perfect place to start a business education, and consequently, a thriving business career.

For information about MBA programs, degrees and MBA schools in Canada, such please visit

<http://www.canadianmba.com>

, the official Canadian MBA programs site.

This Free E-Book has been brought to you by Natural-Aging.com.

100% Effective Natural Hormone Treatment
Menopause, Andropause And Other Hormone Imbalances
Impair Healthy Healing In People Over The Age Of 30!