Links From Your Customers

By Henry James

Links – they are the ultimate thing to get the right traffic and good search engine ratings for your website. Owning a website is not the end of the road. The road of online success goes further. And it goes via building link popularity. So, getting links is an essential measure for you to rank among the top results of the most popular search engines like Google.

You might go through a lot of difficulties in finding the right links. You just cannot add any other link to your website. Link popularity is essential. And link popularity is determined only on the basis of quantity of quality links. The links should be able to get the right traffic to your website. Many resources can give you links. But have you ever thought of getting links from your customers? Yes, you can even raise the links from your customers!

Every website has a certain set of loyal customers. You must also be having a list of customers you can bank up on with confidence. So, get attuned and get the links from your customers as the customers are a great resource for building great links. This concept will be clearer to your with the help of an example.

Suppose you are a cloth manufacturer. You may be selling your products to a lot of wholesalers and designer stores. Many other companies will be collaborating with you for the clothing business. You can give a list of your customers on the Internet and get links from them. The people who look for more links on your page will be visiting the links to your customers as well. These links, if profitable to them will readily be added. The links will definitely impress the visitors to your websites as they are looking for the same product as you are manufacturing. Once the visitors add the link of your customers atop their website, you can easily link back to them. This is the right means to get the targeted traffic for your website as well as the website of your customers.

These days a number of people get them listed as the customers of well-known websites to attract the Internet traffic on their sites. You can also get you added in the list of the customers of a good website. Some websites charge a nominal amount of fees from you while the others offer this facility free of cost. You can find a number of websites offering you this service. To make sure that the website you are getting yourself added to, is a good one, make a search on the search engine. Try to contact the top ranking websites and get added to them.

So, links from your customers are good to raise your link popularity. You can get a list of the links added from your customer links list. You can add a link to the websites or request a link to them. Your customers are not less than a treasure of links for you.

10 Amplifying Ways To Turn Up Your Sales Volume

By Larry Dotson

1. Make your potential customers forget about the competition. Just tell them to forget with a factual and believable reason why they should.
2. Joint venture with your competition if you can't beat them. You could agree to work together and beat the other competition then share the profits.
3. Visit chat rooms where your potential customers would gather. You can lurk and do market research or mention your product to people.
4. Make your web site sticky by building a large directory of web sites your visitors would enjoy. It saves them precious time searching for them.
5. Start a free-to-join business association from your web site. Just ask all members to place your association logo and link on their web site.
6. Make extra revenue for your web site by selling advertising space on your web site, in your e-zine, in your free ebooks, on your classified ad site, etc.
7. Switch your marketing plan when your market dies for your product. Be flexible and redesign your product for a different market.
8. Make your web site worth revisiting. Give your visitors original content, free ebooks, information web site links, free useful software, etc.
9. Build your opt-in e-mail list using an FFA (free-for-all links page). People can submit links to your links page and you can send them a thanks e-mail.
10. Reward your customers for giving you product feedback. It could be discounted products, useful software, information products, etc.
