Miracles: What The Bible Has To Say About Them

By Gabriel Adams

It was a miracle! How many times have you heard someone say that? Probably hundreds of times.

But they don't really mean that it was a miracle - what they really mean is that the event they witnessed was amazing, improbable, or inexplicable.

But are there real miracles? Have there been times that the natural laws of the universe, such as gravity, or even death, have been stopped, changed, or reversed? To find the answer to this question, we must turn to the Bible.

Fact #1: Jesus performed many miracles

In the four gospels, we find many instances where Jesus performed miracles, such as "Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see." (Matthew 12:22) Perhaps one of the most famous of Jesus' miracles was the raising of Lazarus from the dead, which we read about in John 11: "Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days...Jesus called in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" 44The dead man came out."

Fact #2: Jesus performed these miracles to prove that he was God

In the book of Acts, Peter says that "Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know."

Fact #3: Jesus gave authority to his disciples to perform miracles

In Matthew 10:1, we're told that Jesus "called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out evil[a] spirits and to heal every disease and sickness."

Fact #4: God has given authority to his servants at various times to perform miracles

The Bible has many stories of miracles performed by God's servants - Moses, Elijah, Elisha, and others. The question is - does God still empower his followers to work miracles in his name? That is a tough question. The answer is beyond the scope of this article, but I hope that you will think and study the Bible to find the answer!

THE FIRST TABERNACLE

By Angelique Watkins

THE FIRST TABERNACLE by Angelique Watkins

The Tabernacle was a symbol of the visible Church of God on earth. It is the Tabernacle and its worship that David so frequently refers in the Psalms.

THE FIRST TABERNACLE

There was a Tabernacle in the camp of the Israelites previous to the erection of the one that is generally known by that name. This was doubtless the dwelling, or the headquarters of Moses, and the place where the public business of the nation was transacted.

Exodus 33:7-10: Reference To The Tabernacle verse 7: And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

verse 8: And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

SACRED PLACES " THE TABERNACLE " "The TABERNACLE Set Up"

verse 9: And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.

MIRACLES " MIRACLES In The Upper Regions, And In The Atmosphere"

verse 10: And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.
