Natural Liquid Wholefood Nutritionals are Making New Waves! by J. Escobar

Leading the pack across America today with great resurgence is one of the original, proprietary liquid wholefood nutritionals – still going strong after just over 10 years on the market. Why so popular?

Because it works. And, it works because it's based on the way Nature works. Only Nature has the ability to reproduce life after its own kind. Manmade pill and powder supplements and other man-made nutrition products cannot do this. Only a product based upon the sound principles of Nature in Nature's perfect balance can do this.

Seasilver is a proprietary liquid wholefood naturally balanced nutritional made for maximum absorption of nutrients that the cells of the body readily recognize.

So, what about the so-called "natural" nutrition supplements, pills and powders made by so many companies? If it's not wholefood, created in perfect harmony as only God can create in Nature, your body stands to lose, not gain, balanced nutrition.

Balanced wholefood nutrition, especially in highly absorbable liquid form is a much better answer than mega doses of vitamins or minerals, especially in pill or powder form.

In September 2001, SFI launched its own line of advanced nutritional supplements under the brandname, VERIUNI.

Nutrition is a multi-multi-billion dollar industry. Through SFI's Veriuni line of nutritional supplements, SFI affiliates can now share in the profits of this huge, booming marketplace.

Our top seller, Advanced Liquid Nutrition is an incredible, all-natural liquid supplement containing nearly every daily nutrient required for prolonged health -- all in a single, concentrated one-ounce dose. More than 127 nutrients, 77 plant-derived minerals, 13 vitamins, 12 herbs, and 18 amino acids -- all in a delicious peach flavor. And because it's a liquid, your body absorbs more of the nutrients in each dose than with capsules or tablets.
