New Consumer Service Recruiting Agents Across US

By Rene Kiehl

New Consumer Service Recruiting Agents Across US by Rene Kiehl

StateSide Pages, the combination listings and online gaming service, is to begin recruiting agents to roll out the listings across the country. Individuals and companies are currently being sought to take the service to the businesses in their region.

StateSide Pages offers visitors the traditional mix of online games - card, puzzle, slot, word etc, but will combine these with the comprehensive listings database, both via the prize fund and through the use of geographic visibility and inclusion within the game operations (such as clue hunts and themed activities). By combining the two, the multi-million gaming community will have a strong incentive to utilise StateSide Pages' listings.

Agents will receive a fee of $10 per sign up for new businesses and professionals. They will collect an additional $5 to $10 for every additional year that the sign-up remains with StateSide Pages. There are no minimum terms such as how many sign-ups need to be made, but there are incentives for individuals that succeed in securing high numbers of businesses for the service.

MLM versus Pyramid

By Gino Harteel

Many people don't know the difference between MLM and pyramid, and I must admit sometimes the line between the two is very thin, but as a simple rule you can see the difference rather quickly by asking yourself the following question ?

"What is more important ? The product or service or recruiting new affiliates or members ?"

A company, any company can ONLY survive when they sell products or services !!!

Then, and only then, they can pay you as an affiliate or member.

When you get commission on recruiting other members WITHOUT selling any product or service you are involved in a pyramid and my advice to you, get out a.s.a.p.

If you are attracted to the mlm, as I am, find yourself a good product or service which you really like, of course use the product yourself, test it, abuse it and if you are still convinced this product or service is the best you have ever seen and you believe every soul on this planet should know about it, than go for it.

For me it is promoting the UK Lotto and Euro Millions through mlm, you can check for more info.

Good luck to you and find yourself a good product or service sold by a reputable mlm company.

Gino Harteel has been involved with mlm since 1997 with ups and downs. On
