"Oktoberfest" - the legendary Bavarian Beer festival –comes to London

The world's largest and most famous beer festival - Munich's legendary Oktoberfest – is coming to London! For three Fridays this October - October 15th, October 22nd and 29th - Limeburner Lane will be filled with the famous Bavarian Erdinger beer, bratwurst and pretzels, traditional Bavarian music, yodelling and blonde beer waitresses.

"Oktoberfest in London" is an international event with something for all nationalities and customers.

Individual beer fans, groups and companies are all invited to join the original Bavarian-style event in a traditional rustic German atmosphere. As well as the beer, bratwurst and music there will also be Bavarian Olympics.

Two of the traditional highlights are Fingerhakeln (two contestants `wrestle' with their middle fingers to try to pull the opponent over the table and into submission); and Masskrug-Stemmen (contestants carry steins with straight arms in a test of endurance).

Tickets for this spectacular event are £29 (ex VAT) for Single bookings and £250 (ex VAT) for a table for 10 persons including unlimited Bavarian beer.

When: Friday, October 15th, 22nd and 29th / Starting 5pm – midnight

Where: Restaurant/Bar / 1-2 Limeburner Lane, London EC4

Programme: Bavarian Oompah-Music & Yodelling / Bavarian Olympics

Food & Drinks Original Bavarian Wheat beer "Erdinger" / German Bratwurst and Pretzels

Prices: "All inclusive" UNLIMITED Beer, Bratwurst & Pretzels and Soft drinks Single Ticket £29 (ex VAT) / Table for 10 people £250 (ex VAT)
