For the longest time America has been a magnet to people from all around the globe. It's as if an invisible neon sign is flashing in the minds of immigrants with the words: "Welcome to America - what's your dream?" America has always been viewed as the Land of Opportunities where dreams can come true. Is it any wonder then why so many immigrants choose to leave their roots elsewhere and even risk their lives just to get here? It's hard to describe to someone who was born in America what it feels like to be an immigrant in the US - both the hardship and the pride that comes from being an American by choice.

It's unfortunate that the current climate of immigrant bashing (particularly in California) overshadows the contributions of many immigrants to the fabric of the American society. It's true, many immigrants still feel like a stranger in a strange land and "in it but not of it," despite their efforts to integrate. However, in the interest of fairness, it's in the best interest of society to become aware of the unique struggles as well as the many contributions of immigrants that need to be celebrated. After all, America is a nation of immigrants and immigrants are in essence the true story of America.

It's been said that every jungle needs a king, and likewise, every dream needs a source of inspiration. Arnold Schwarzenegger's success story of an immigrant (despite his heavy accent) who came to America with nothing in the pursuit of The American Dream and whose personal quest for self-fulfillment eventually evolved into a quest for being in public service in order to help others, is as fascinating as it is inspirational, but this is just one of many success stories. Take for example another fascinating and inspirational true story of another female immigrant, Geela, who came to America with no money or any support system whatsoever to pursue her passion for music. She achieved incredible success both personally and professionally despite many odds against her. Just like her fellow immigrant Arnold Schwarzenegger, Geela's personal quest for self-fulfillment eventually evolved into a quest for helping children and promoting global unity through her innovative nonprofit organization, ONE SPIRIT, ONE WORLD (

<http://www.onespiritoneworld.org>

) which

revolutionizes the conventional wisdom about achieving global peace, cultural harmony and prosperity for all.

In fact, mastering the art of the possible and getting others to see that the possible always exceeds the impossible is at the heart of Geela's highly inspirational and praised book THE AMERICAN DREAM which presents Geela's PRINCIPLES FOR SUCCESSFUL LIVING designed to take anyone regardless of their circumstances from poverty to total prosperity (not limited to financial success) while helping others to make their lives an adventure to be lived rather than a problem to be solved.

When you consider the amazing inspirational success stories of immigrants such as Arnold Schwarzenegger, Celin Dion and Geela, you can't help but have the courage to dream too. And why not? If seeing is believing then even the "Impossible Dream" can become possible, but only in America, the ultimate Land of The Free and The Home of The Opportunity. So go ahead, make your own dream come true.

AMERICA NEEDS THE LORD

By Irvin L. Rozier

AMERICA NEEDS THE LORD by Irvin L. Rozier

Lord you spoke into existence the heavens and the earth

Only In America

Created nations, people and gave America birth
Since 1776 America has been a free land
Our forefathers recognized the creation of Your hand
Many prayers for America have reached your ears
You have kept her safe throughout the years
You have raised up leaders for our nation
For a season and a time then You did station
Now it is the year two thousand and four America needs your presence even more

America needs the Lord to heal our land
Please, O Lord, stretch out Your healing hand
Without Your presence America would fall
Because of this unto You we do call

Since America's beginning, we have had many wars
We have lost many Americans, boys and girls
O Lord, don't let those deaths be in vain
Comfort their loved ones and heal their pain
From Massachusetts to Oregon state
Upon the prayers of Your people You do wait
Your eyes roam to and fro throughout the country
To show Yourself strong to those who pray to thee

You said if you shall ask you shall receive Deliver America, O Lord, from those who do deceive
In the troublesome days that lie ahead
Give us day by day our daily bread
America is still under Your amazing grace
Let us not forsake to seek Your face
A great awakening is what we need
To Your Word, O Lord, America must heed
Greed and strife has a strong hold
In the land of the free and the home of the bold
