One hotel that fits this bill is the Lipa Aparthotel. The Lipa Aparthotel is nestled in Asuncion. It offers its guests many of the same amenities found at home including internet access, televisions and DVD players. The weather is almost always perfect for spending a few hours on the court not only working out your body but also soaking in the environment and the scenery.

When you travel to Paraguay it's important to note that about 75% of the population speaks Spanish. For someone with a rudimentary high school Spanish background they can probably get by. However, the staff at the hotels in Paraguay speak English and if you need some assistance regarding directions or perhaps a recommendation for a restaurant, they are always willing to help. They want you to have a wonderful time during your stay and will work hard to make that a reality.

Paraguay Vacations

Another way that the hotels in Paraguay work towards pleasing their clientele is by offering very affordable accommodations. It's one of the reasons that people are drawn back to Paraguay for their vacations year after year. They feel as though they've discovered a small piece of paradise.

When planning your next holiday consider all that Paraguay has to offer. The surroundings are beautiful, the climate is ideal and the hotels are not only reasonably priced but offer the tourist an opportunity to relax and explore all that Paraguay has to offer.
