Peace after Ariel Sharon?

By Robert Maegh

This is the view of a non-Jewish Belgian author, who spent several years in the Middle East (mostly in Iran), on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict after Ariel Sharon.

We must accept it as a fact, even when he recovers, that Ariel Sharon will be unable to resume duties. After the elections, most probably, Ehud Olmert will be the new Prime Minister and will continue Sharon's politic. Will this lead to peace? The answer is "No". Let us suppose "Bibi", Benjamin Netanyahu, wins the elections; he is against the Palestinian State and the dismantling of the Settlements. Can he offer a future peace? The answer is simple: "No". Nobody can bring peace in the Middle East as long as the people who pull the strings of the Palestinian politics don't want peace. More detailed information is to be found on my website:

<http://www.westernfreedom.com>

and in My book "A Holy Terror".

Who are these people pulling the strings: Hamas, Al Aqsa, Hezbollah, Al Quaida, You can read the "Hamas-covenant" on my website mentioned above and then it will be clear what these people are up to.

I will illustrate my point of view a little more:

Koran-Yusufali 66:9: O Prophet! Strive hard against the Unbelievers and the Hypocrites, and be firm against them. Their abode is Hell, – an evil refuge (indeed).

Egyptian Foreign Minister Muhammad Salah al-Din :

The Arab people will not be embarrassed to declare: We shall not be satisfied except by the final obliteration of Israel from the map of the Middle East.

Fatah Leader, Ziad Ibu-Aid - June 20th, 2001: "We said from the beginning that there is no cease-fire for the settlers."

Peace after Ariel Sharon?

Sheikh Hian Al-Adrisi- Al-Aksa Mosque September 29th 2000:

It is not a mistake that the Koran warns us of the hatred of the Jews and puts them at the top of the list of the enemies of Islam. Today the Jews recruit the world against the Muslims and use all kind of weapons. They are plundering the dearest place to the Muslims after Mecca and Medina and threaten the place the Muslims have faced at first when they prayed and the third holiest city after Mecca and Medina. They want to erect their temple on that place... The Muslims are ready to sacrifice their lives and blood to protect the Islamic nature of Jerusalem and Al-Aksa.

Ahmad Ragab columnist of AL-Akhbar (Egypt) April 18th 2001:

Thanks to Hitler, blessed memory, who on behalf of the Palestinian, revenged in advance, against the vilest criminals on the face of the earth. Although we do have a complaint against him for his revenge on them was not enough.

Sheikh Ibrahim Mahdi - June 8th 2001 :

Allah willing, this unjust state...Israel will be erased; this unjust state, the United States will be erased; this unjust state, Britain will be erased...Blessings to whoever waged Jihad for the sake of Allah...Blessings to whoever put a belt of explosives on his body or on his son's and plunged into the midst of the Jews...

Dr Ahmad Abu-Halabia- Rector of the University in Gaza:

Fight them (the Jews) wherever you are. Whenever you meet them, kill them. Wherever you are, kill those Jews and those Americans who are like them. They are all in one trench, against the Arabs and the Muslims; because they established Israel here, in the beating heart of the Arab world, in Palestine.

This is sufficient for an article, I can show many more of these quotes by important Muslims. You want to hold peace-talks with these people? Well, I wish you good luck.

At the moment, no discussion can settle the differences. The Palestinian Authority can even make a peace agreement with Israel, but the next day there will be a serious assault. The Muslim terrorist groups don't want peace. I am even convinced that the worldwide Muslim radicals aren't interested in a Palestine State (See what happened in Jordan, they threw them out, with as consequence the complete destruction of Lebanon). A Palestine State would only mean a step closer to the enemy's front door.

Luckily, no Muslim State has at this moment the courage to attack Israel openly as, they also know that it would be the start of World War III. The United States would never accept such an aggression and Europe would reluctantly follow the Americans (I hope).

A United and strong West (Europe + Russia, United States, Australia, New Zealand and Israel) is able to keep peace in the Middle East. We must show we are serious about it and will unconditionally support the Jewish State. I support the Bush-politics, but it should be more efficient and he should have to stop imposing democracy in these Muslim States, as Islam and Democracy are by definition contradictory. If the West fails, then it won't take long before the European countries belong to the Maghrib states and will lose it's Christian culture. And the U.S. will have no other choice than dumping the "Old Europe" by losing at the same time a part of it's soul.

Peace On Earth

Peace On Earth

John Cali

Well, it's become a tradition around here, at this holiday time of year, for us to re-publish a couple of our more popular newsletters from years back. We re-published "Gratitude" last month, and this month we're re-publishing "Peace On Earth."

This week, many of our world's cultures celebrate Christmas. And our thoughts turn to world peace. Or, perhaps, to the lack of it. Joseph's old message "Peace On Earth" is not only timely in these trying times, but also timeless.

I wish all of you and your loved ones a most blessed and beautiful holiday season. Whatever your religious or spiritual beliefs, may you find joy and peace in this season of celebration — a celebration of all life in all its seasons.

Chief Joseph

On your earth plane, you often have "peace meditations." And yet every individual's definition of peace is different. There are as many definitions and kinds of peace on your planet as there are people walking upon it.

Generally, we are not in favor of peace meditations. Why? Because everyone comes to the meditation — or whatever the gathering is — with different, often conflicting, ideas of what peace is. And that defeats the very purpose of your coming together.

However, let us say this: Those who enter into these peace endeavors are coming from a pure heart, from a pure intention. There is certainly no malice in them.

Peace after Ariel Sharon?

But the only way you can create "peace on earth" is to first create it within yourself. This is a premise many on the earth plane have missed.

You must be at peace within yourself — you must have found peace for yourself — before you will have any peace to give others, before you will ever be able to show others the true path to peace.

And when you do create this "peace on earth," know this: you will all still have different ideas of what peace is. There will never be, in your experience in this lifetime, a time when all will agree on just exactly what peace on earth is.

You did not come into this particular incarnation — at this particular time in your human history, at this particular time in your own individual history — to create total peace on earth.

You came to this planet at this time to experience diversity, not oneness. And in that diversity you will all find joy, once you allow the diversity to be okay. Once you allow yourself, and all others, to be okay just exactly where you all are right now.

In that allowing, and only in that allowing, will you ever find peace on earth.

Peace will never come to earth unless you see — and understand — all will never be one and the same. You are all diverse and different.

You will find peace — total peace — only in accepting and allowing the diversity, and in letting go of your need for sameness.

Peace be with you.
