By Blake Stevenson

Using blogs as a poker promotion technique can be very profitable. In case you're a poker affiliate and aren't familiar with the world of blogging, here is a quick overview of why you should consider blogs as strategy for building your business.

Blogging is a concept that was started in the late 90's. Blogging was originally used as a way to comment on an existing webpage and provided an opportunity for visitors to voice their opinions on a particular page. Here is a list of 5 reasons why you should start using blogs as a poker affiliate.

1. Blogging is simple. Publishing content to a blog is hands down the easiest way to get your writing on the web. There are absolutely no skills necessary to publish content to a blog, it is actually so simple that even a child can do it. Simply type and click, that's it. Maintaining a blog is just like having a virtual piece of paper that you write your ideas to. As long as you have access to a computer and an internet connection, you can start promoting poker online.
2. Blogging is authentic. In a day and age where advertising saturates our lives, many question the credibility of ads that they are exposed to. Blogs however, allow real people to share their real life experiences and reviews, unscathed by paid ads. Blogging lends credibility to your promotion efforts and builds up trust.
3. Blogging is free. Blogging doesn't have to cost a dime and you can get started in just minutes. What more could you ask for?
4. Blogging builds credibility. Blogging gives your readers an opportunity to gain a somewhat candid view of your thoughts, opinions, and emotions. This leads to believability and you can use this to promote your poker affiliate business.
5. Blogging expands your sphere of influence. Blogging will explode your circle of influence and you'll soon have visitors from all parts of the world visiting your blog and reading your posts. This is extremely powerful!

Poker Affiliate Program Internet Marketing Tips

By Blake Stevenson

Once you have made the decision to become a poker affiliate for an online poker room, it is very important that you turn your attentions to internet marketing techniques. Marketing your poker affiliate business through the use of internet marketing tactics is one of the easiest ways to generate a massive income with poker affiliate programs.

Though many people may not view being an online poker affiliate as a real business, it is most definitely a viable way to create serious wealth. However, to earn any kind of serious money, you must take things seriously and apply a lot of hard work. Becoming a poker affiliate is not a way to get rich overnight and anyone who tells you otherwise is not being honest.

To become a successful poker affiliate, your main goal should be traffic generation. When creating the content on your website, be sure that you target the right keywords as this will help you bring in search engine visitors. If you fail to target the proper keyword phrases, people are going to have a very difficult time finding your website.

Also, a solid tracking software is an essential tool for any poker affiliate using internet marketing as a way of building their business. A professional stats program will help as it will tell you exactly where your traffic is coming from. Successful affiliate internet marketing is a much more difficult thing to do if you don't have a way of tracking your results.

Another great way to promote online poker rooms as an affiliate is to publish a regular internet poker tips and strategy newsletter. Build a list of people who are interested in playing poker online and regularly email them with helpful advice, new bonus codes, and more. Using email can be an extremely powerful tool when you are promoting poker rooms and I strongly recommend that every online poker affiliate start using this to their advantage.
