Man's Restored Image

Author Offers Motivational Story Inspired by Basketball Legend Michael Jordan

LAUREL, MD. ----- In her riveting new book, Man's Restored Image (now available through AuthorHouse, Amazon.com, Barnes & Noble.com), Gloria Minatti depicts mankind in all its attributes – spiritually, mentally and physically.

The book announces humankind's beginning and heralds it end. It leads humanity on a path never before walked due to people's fears of the unknown and brings out the true authentic potential within every man and woman. Its conception was inspired greatly by the author's personal and spiritual encounter with basketball legend Michael Jordan, whose strength, vitality and focus are major themes in the book.

In 1998, God revealed his destiny to Minatti, and from that unforgettable meeting, she was inspired to write this spiritual, motivational story, which encompasses innumerable aspects of God's plan for humanity.

Man's Restored Image provides a map for life's journey and incorporates meditation and proper breathing as guides. Coming full circle, it depicts man's beginning and exemplifies his gestation of life. Minatti leads readers into a maze of information and knowledge that catapults them into an entirely new dimension of living. By revealing God by His ways and not just His acts, the author shows that one can be religious without ever fully knowing God.

Minatti also writes that it is not the body that makes a man human, it is his spirit. "As God's self-knowledge lies in the eternal Spirit, so man's self-knowledge is by his own spirit, and his knowledge of God is by direct union of the Spirit of God with the spirit of man. I cannot overstress the importance of this in our forward walk into our destiny as sons of God," Minatti writes.

Minatti has ministered all over the United States and in March began her 2004 worldwide tour in the Philippines. She has taught classes on healing, prayer, praise and worship, Christian meditation and Spiritual studies. She is the founder of the Beyond the Veil newsletter, which is circulated monthly around the world, and also founder and president of Man's Restored Image Ministries Inc.

The author resides in Laurel, Md., with her two sons. Recently widowed, she has reached hundreds with her ministry, declaring that God is a healer of all infirmities.

She is founder of Beyond the Veil Newsletter distributed around the world, also Founder of Man's Restored Image Ministries Inc.. She is an ordained minister with 18 years of experience in spiritual studies. Ms. Minatti's spiritual journey directed her to minister to basketball legend/entrepreneur Michael Jordan. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, and a licensed Fitness/Nutrition Specialist. www.mansrestoredimage.org

Top Secret Tool Builds Traffic

By Larry Johnson

Is it possible that today's internet marketers are missing one of the best, most powerful marketing methods available to them today.

Something that is lying right under their noses and still they have overlooked it.

Something that is free, yes I said it, "free", and they have missed the opportunity to seize it and use it to its fullest.

There are many methods of promotion available on the internet and off line too. For several years I have tried just about everything, but there is one that I have not utilized fully. Along with others, I had underestimated the value and power of a press release.

Many netrepreneurs are not using the best promotion tool available, according to one expert in the field. Angie Dixon, the Press Release Diva, advises that press releases are the best marketing tool most people aren't using.

A well-written press release, distributed by the several high-quality free press release distribution services on the Net, can bring a wave of traffic, says Dixon.

"I recently ran a press release through a free service. The release was picked up by Google Alerts. I got a subscriber every 87 minutes for 24 hours. I couldn't buy that kind of result," Dixon says.

Yet most netpreneurs aren't using press releases at all, or aren't using them correctly. This is all about to change.

Dixon gives two reasons for this. Many people, she explains, aren't aware that press releases can be such a powerful marketing tool. Others know about press releases but do not know how to write an effective release.

Angie Dixon, the Press Release Diva, offers an interactive online course in press release writing. You will discover all of the necessary skills and tools to develop, distribute and track your press releases.

The additional traffic you will receive from the press releases will be welcome and best of all it is free.
