Purchasing A Dog Training Book

By Dylan Mccabe

My next door neighbor, a very cruel man, don't realize that when he goes to do his ten hour truck driving job and leaves his black Labrador closed in a four by six cage, that his dog keeps barking all day long at things like noises, at footsteps of people inside their homes, at sirens, at birds.

He barks not because he likes it but because he is lonely, frustrated, anxious and also sometimes scared. And also sometimes he barks to protect his region, sorry to say which is made up of leftover poop, an over turned water bowl, and a toy the dog outgrew after the first week it was brought to the house- single shabby chew toy. Dog-training books- have you ever heard of it, you naïve human?

Even though, you get home amidst all of the barking, you still take your own sweet time eating before it even crosses your mind to release your alleged beloved pet. Great Pet related site

. Even after retrieving your dog from the cage you go off to surf the internet for porn, sports or whatever, by leaving that poor creature all by himself in a secluded room. As an alternative you could try your hands at reading some of the EASY-to-comprehend dog-training books, so that you can train you dog to do a lot of things like sitting besides you instead of a dark room away from you.

Amazon.com or many other online book stores, that you can use to obtain your bog-training books so that you can train you dog and teach him not to bark at every living being and every change in weather. Sorry to burst your bubble but amazon is not where you will find amazons to please your desires, and powells isn't a synonym for closet masochists. If we could then we would be talking to the dog instead, who seem to posses more sense than you even if that means getting news about every interruption or even to chew every piece of leather, but this is for your education

By reading some of the thousands of common or precise dog-training books you could probably learn why your dog keeps on barking or what will stop him from devouring the furniture- the reason you use to lock your dog outside so that he can trouble you neighbors, who work at home for a living too, instead of you. We have chosen not to have dogs and thus we don't want to take responsibility for or even hear that poor dog. On the other hand it is time you took responsibility for your decisions. It is high time you get a number of dog-training books or even better some human-training book cause the dog doesn't seem to be the problem, you do.

Dog Training Tips

By Fayola Peters

Dog training requires simple persistence to be a successful and delightful experience for you and your dog. Here are 8 dog training tips to guide you along the way.

1. Dog Training Tips – Get your dog's attention

Before you can start training your dog you first need to get its attention. You can do this by talking to him and offering him a small treat.

2. Dog Training Tips – Use the correct dog training supplies

If you have a well behaved dog a six foot training lead and a regular buckle collar will do. However if you dog is uncontrollable you should use a training collar. For the right collar size measure the dogs' neck and add 2 inches.

3. Dog Training Tips – For safety in vehicles

Before you introduce your dog to the inside of a moving vehicle you should teach him the 'down!' and 'stay!' commands. This ensures that he spends the ride on the floor of the vehicle.

4. Dog Training Tips – Elimination

When your dog got to go it got to go. To prevent your dog from getting busy on the carpet you should train him to eliminate on command.

5. Dog Training Tips – Praise

Always praise your dog when he learns a new command.

6. Dog Training Tips – Reprimand

Do not hit your dog! Any time your dog is engaging in bad behavior, use the opportunity to teach him the 'stop!' or 'no!' command. Using the 'stay!' command can also be effective in these situations.

7. Dog Training Tips – Play with your dog

This will help in building the bond between you and your dog.

8. Dog Training Tips – Do some dog training everyday

Don't rush dog training. Teach your dog one command at a time and don't move on until he gets it. A little dog training everyday is all that's needed.

Well that's it for my dog training tips. Enjoy training your dog and remember that it takes simple persistence.
