Purses

By Amanda Pavis

Every year, the gods of fashion announce a new trend in purses: the "it" colors, the best materials, the hottest accents. Of course, all women will jump at the chance to go shopping for purses, especially since they're the easiest and most practical way of updating your wardrobe—a wholesale handbag can cost as little as $40.

Designer handbags are more expensive of course, but you can justify the price by saying that purses cost far less than, say, buying entire designer outfits.

In fact, purses can prove to be the more practical way of incorporating a key trend into your look. How many times will you be wearing that leopard print jacket—but purses in even the most exotic designs can be paired with suits and jeans.

The question, however, is which of the hundred purses available in the market will you choose to buy? Start with classic purses that match most of the items in your closet. These purses have a timeless shape that will always be considered fashionable. Just pick a bright color to inject a little personality into its practicality—fire engine red, or vibrant yellow.

Or pick purses with rich, interesting patterns like mock crocodile, or a luxurious fabrics like velvet. Basic rule of thumb for shopping for classic purses: they need to have at least one stand-out detail, whether it be the shade or the material, so they don't turn out drab. Check out the Dooney & Bourke purses and Cole Haan purses—the mid-range price will let you shop without guilt.

For high glam purses you can use for evening, pick those with beadwork, jewel accents, or dramatic shapes.

Some purses accent the clasp with a beautiful brooch, others have diamonds or small mirror accents set into elegant patterns. Gucci's gorgeous metallic purses are the "it" evening bag of the year; you'll spot it on the red carpet walks of Hollywood's biggest celebrities. Drool, drool.

The Purse - The One Accessory Women Just Can't Live Without

By Ken Wilson

The purse or handbag as it is sometimes referred to is a small bag that is normally used as an accessory by women. These purses or bags are used to hold items such as wallets, keys, tissues, cell phones, makeup, keys, and other items that women just can't be without.

Available in many different shapes, sizes, and styles, the purse has become a must have accessory for all women. In addition to this purses have also become a fashion accessory with many designer labels now producing their own range of purses. These include Gucci and Louis Vutton, to name but a few. The purse can come in a wide range of materials and fabric including leather, animal fur, animal skin such as crocodile is also very popular, silk, and cotton. Small to medium sized purses with short handles that are designed only to be carried are referred to as clutch purses and these are very popular for night time use.

A coin purse is one that is just big enough to hold money and cards and this can be stored in larger purses. Whilst purses are normally only carried by women, there is an alternative for men, and this is the backpack. Many men and women carry these backpacks and they have become very popular in today's modern society.

For many women one purse is not enough and for many purses has become one of their many accessories. Different purses for different outfits and occasions are now very common and there are many women who may have up to ten or more purses in their possession.

Whether it's a designer label purse or one from the local high streets you can be sure that in today's fashion conscious world, every woman will own at least two or three purses and will always be on the lookout for the latest model to add to her collection.
