Sagittarians 'Have Best Car Insurance Claim Records'

By Kwik Fit

Sagittarians appear to be the most careful drivers of all the star signs, according to new research from moneysupermarket.com.

The price comparison website found that those who were born between November 23rd and December 21st are least likely to pick up motoring claims and convictions.

Compared with the average driver, Sagittarians file seven per cent fewer motor insurance claims and receive eight per cent fewer convictions, Moneysupermarket discovered.

This is not surprising considering those born under the sign of the archer are cited as being precise and tolerant.

Arians on the other hand pick up the most claims and convictions thanks to their impatient nature. In general they file nine per cent more claims and rack up six per cent more motoring convictions than the average driver.

Richard Mason, director of insurance at moneysupermarket.com said: "Some drivers will read more into this than others, but it's fair to say we were surprised how closely this year's claims and conviction statistics mirrored traditional star sign traits."

For those whose star sign does get them into trouble, Moneysupermarket advises them to shop around for the best car insurance deals. There is now a much larger variety of insurers to choose from ensuring that the customer will get the best deal for them.

Some insurers tend to be more lenient than others towards transgressions, and motorists could save themselves hundreds of pounds by comparing their current provider's quoted premium with others on the market, it claims.

"Drivers should keep sight of the potential social and financial consequences of letting their standards slip, whatever their star sign. If you do have to make a claim, or worse still receive a driving conviction, it's definitely worth shopping around since your premiums may well rise and your current insurer may no longer offer the best value for money," said Mr Mason.

Car Insurance No Claims Bonus Explained

By Andrew Bowen

No Claims Bonus is a term used to describe the number of years you have had Car Insurance without making a claim. Put simply, if you have had Car Insurance for 4 years and you have not made a claim in that time, then you have 4 years No Claims Bonus. No Claim Bonus is probably the single biggest factor affecting the cost of your Car Insurance premium. Every year that goes by without you making a claim is another year of No Claims Bonus. Generally speaking, the more No Claims Bonus years you have, the cheaper your premium will be for the car you need to insure. This is because Car Insurance companies can see that your history regarding making any claims is a good one. When changing provider, Car Insurance companies will usually ask you to prove your No Claims Bonus in the form of a renewal notice or a letter from your current Car Insurance company. If you have several years of No Claims Bonus but then make a claim, the Car Insurance company will usually apply it's rules of how much to knock back your No Claims Bonus Years. Some companies such as Accept Direct ( ) offer to protect your No Claims Bonus for an extra fee during the quotation process. Having full no claims bonus can also entitle you up to 75% discount on your car insurance premium.
