1. Don't spoil me. I know quite well that I ought not to have all I ask for. I'm only testing you.
2. Don't be afraid to be firm with me. I prefer it; it lets me know where I stand.
5. Don't make promises you cannot keep them. It will discourage my trust in you.
8. Don't make me feel smaller than I am. I will make up for it by behaving like a "big shot".
12. Don't try to preach to me. You'd be surprised how well I know what's right and wrong.
14. Don't nag. When you do, I shall have to protect myself by appearing deaf.
15. Don't demand explanations for my wrong behavior. I really don't know why I did it.
16. Don't tax my honesty too much. I am easily frightened into telling lies.
17. Don't forget that I love and use experimenting. I learn from it; so put up with it.

19. Don't protect me from consequences. I need your guidance to learn from my experiences.

21. Don't answer my "silly" or meaningless questions. I just want you to keep busy with me.

23. Don't ever suggest that you are perfect or infallible. It gives me too much to live up to.

25. Don't let my fears arouse your anxiety; then I shall be afraid. Show me courage instead.

Remember: When we maximize our potential, everyone wins. When we don't, we all lose.

What was done about the inadequate Vioxx warnings?

By Michael Monheit, Esquire, Monheit Law, PC

Class action suits were filed against Merck, the maker of Vioxx. The lawsuits are pending.

The warnings on Vioxx were late to come and the drug should have been pulled sooner.

On its own, Merck issued only a luke warm Vioxx warning.

Dr. Alastair Wood, professor of pharmacology and associate dean at Vanderbilt University
