Seven Perfect Days in Aruba

By Y. Smolyansky

Seven Perfect Days in Aruba by Y. Smolyansky

Aruba ... If this word makes you think of Paradise, of pristine beaches and a vibrant nightlife, of beautiful sites and perfect weather, you won't be disappointed.

Aruba is a charming contradiction, an island of "two faces". Its milky beaches and transparent blue waters will make you feel like you're the first person to walk on the sand and soak your feet. But its Vegas-style casinos, parties and shows reveal the other, wilder side. Aruba is the perfect marriage of entertainment and leisure, an island where there really is something for everyone.

All Inclusive resorts and Aruba are practically synonymous. Engulfed in its ambience and relaxed atmosphere, the last thing you want to do is search for your wallet, worry about paying for daily meals and constantly watch the family vacation budget. With the affordability and convenience of all-inclusive resorts, Aruba visitors can forget all about that and let Aruba's charm and spirit sweep them off their feet.

Aruba's all inclusive resorts are some of the best in the world. There are over twenty-five resorts on the island, but the best, highest-rated ones are:

- Wyndham Aruba Beach Resort
- Marriott Resort & Stellaris Casino
- Renaissance Aruba Resort & Casino
- Hyatt Regency Aruba Resort
- Radisson Aruba Resort & Casino
- Aruba Grand Beach Resort & Casino
- Allegro Aruba by Occidental

Aruba's calling card is its year-round perfect weather. Aruba is located well below the hurricane belt. It's one of the three islands, along with Bonaire and Curacao, located outside the hurricane belt. The average annual temperature is 83 degrees Fahrenheit, and rainfall amounts to just 17 inches a year, most of which occurs during the months of October, and November. It's rare and warm, lasting no more than 15 minutes. If you're planning a vacation of fun in the sun, picking Aruba is almost a guarantee you won't be stuck in your hotel room, watching gray clouds pass over the roof.

If the blue clear waters call your name, and in Aruba - they certainly will, you'll find the island full of options. Snorkeling, windsurfing, deep sea fishing, paragliding, jetskiing - Aruba is happy to oblige. If you can scuba, or want to learn, Aruba is world-famous for its coral reefs and friendly waters. At your all-inclusive resort, many water activities are free. Others, like scuba, can be conveniently arranged by the concierge.

Exploring Aruba is easy with an island tour. Better yet, consider a Jeep tour. Driving is fun and the sites are incredible. Aruba's most photographed spot is its natural bridge, a coral formation rising 25 feet above the sea. Kids love guessing what the cactuses, which dot the island outside the resorts, look like.

Popular sites include:

- Oranjestad city tour
- Wilhelmina Park
- Fort Zoutman
- Aruba Historical Museum
- Willem III Tower
- Archaeological Museum Aruba
- Numismatic Museum
- Natural bridge
- Hooiberg Mountain
- Fontein, Guadirikiri and Huliba caves
- California Dunes
- California Lighthouse
- Chapel of Alto Vista
- Church of Santa Anna in Noord
- Arikok National Park
- De Olde Molen, an old Dutch windmill from Holland
- Balashi and Bushiribana gold mill ruins
- Boca Prins Cove
- San Nicolas

If you love gourmet food, Aruba doesn't disappoint on this front either. Every resort has its own buffet, featuring local and American cuisine, and plenty of seafood. One or two sit-down restaurants inside of each resort serve dinner, exquisitely delicious and fresh.

After a long, relaxing day of being pampered and soaking up the sun at your all inclusive resort, enjoy one of Aruba's Vegas-style shows. The Broadway and Latin shows are long-time staples, along with the hilarious Don't Tell Mama show. You can also try your hand at poker or blackjack inside one of Aruba's dozen casinos. Back at your all-inclusive resort, drinks are, of course, included. Order your favorite and don't worry about the wallet - at an all-inclusive Aruba resort, you don't need it.

It's true what they say in Aruba - it is One Happy Island.

Make A Visit To Aruba

By Martin Stoleman

I love nothing more than sitting down with someone or a family of people and helping them to plan their next vacation. Why? Well, a few reasons I guess. First, I love to go on vacation. I have loved travel for as long as I can remember, so I love infecting other people with the travel bug. I also love helping people plan trips because I know that life is short and I believe that it was meant to be enjoyed. So I love helping people escape from it all and enjoy time somewhere nice. One of my favorite places to suggest for a visit is Aruba.

I often suggest Aruba because it is beautiful place to visit that is still somewhat undiscovered. I like that about a place. I rarely encourage people to visit a place that will be filled with nothing but tourists. You don't get a real taste of Mexico, for example, if you are on the beach with no one other than vacationers. So I encourage my clients to go for something a bit off the beaten path, like say Aruba.

Aruba is beautiful, there are none that would deny it. And beauty, I believe, is an essential part to any great vacation. Now of course people will have a wide variety of views on what exactly makes a thing beautiful, but I think most would agree that white sand beaches, clear blue skies and sunshine make any place great. So if you are looking for sun and beauty, look no further than to the island of Aruba.

Located in the Caribbean, Aruba has a wonderful mixture of things to do and beaches to relax on. You want the option of doing several different things on any vacation, so choosing something like Aruba that has options for busyness or relaxation is perfect no matter who you are or what kind of trip you want.

Talk to a travel agent about your desire to see Aruba. See what kind of package deals you can come up with and find out if any packages even include airfare. Be sure to share with your travel agent all about the things you hope to get from your trip so that she or he will be able to help you as much as possible. Let them fill you in on some of the lesser known things to experience in Aruba.

Grab your family or your closest friends and head off for some great time in Aruba. Once there, you will have the vacation of a lifetime. So get planning and then you can relax and enjoy all that Aruba has to offer.
