Six ways to make extra money for Christmas

Six ways to make extra money for Christmas by Anna-Marie Stewart

Christmas time can be stressful and hard if you're running low on cash. Here are 6 tips for making some extra money so you too can have a joyful season.

1. Root around your house, from attic to basement. Find EVERYTHING that you don't need and don't use, then list them on Ebay.com It's amazing what people actually buy. Remember, one mans junk is another mans treasure.
2. If you find Ebay too confusing, or you feel the need to get out more, take all your new-found items along to the nearest flea market or car boot sale. If you don't want to travel to find customers, throw up a big old "Yard Sale" sign outside your house.
3. If you haven't got your own stuff, or want to sell more, ask your friends for THEIR junk. Tell them you'll sell it for them if you get a percentage of what you make. That way, both you AND your friends make money for Christmas.
4. If you've got a website and digital products such as software and ebooks that you have full resale rights to, see if you can bundle up lots of goodies together for an unbelievably low price. Make sure you let people know it's a one-off Christmas Special that will end soon. Be aware of copywrite and license agreements that may prohibit bundling of certain software products.
5. If you've got a website and you sell physical products, bundle a few together, make up a good price and offer free shipping. Or offer free shipping for purchasing a certain amount. Offering free products such as "buy 3 get 1 free" also works well.
6. Try to get a "stand-in" job in a busy resturant, pub or club. Maybe even a pizza delivery job. There's big tips to be had at Christmas time, and never enough staff.

Try out one, two, or even all of these ideas NOW and you'll have that little bit of extra cash in your pocket in time for Christmas. Feel free to let me know how it works for you, I'd love to hear it!

What Do You Want This Year?

By Angie Dixon

Christmas is all around us, and many people are making up wish lists. Those who aren't doing that are busy setting down their New Year's Resolutions already. But this is a good time to sit down and do some serious introspection.

What do you want from the holidays this year? Do you want to rush around, spend a lot of money you don't have, and yell at the kids for not playing with all twenty of the toys they asked for--at the same time? Is that really how you want to spend Christmas?

We talk about "Christmas spirit," and mostly we mean giving. Giving of ourselves, giving to people who need it. That's great, that's Christmas spirit.

But I think there's another aspect to "Christmas spirit." I think it's spiritual. And don't close your screen on me because I said spiritual. I didn't say religious, because it's not. I think it comes from our souls.

I think deep down, each of us has a spirit that wants to be expressed. And I think at Christmas, when we're naturally thinking of others, that spirit is more easily expressed. I think if you want to, you can have a spiritual Christmas. You can feel loving, caring, generous. You can feel like a kid at Christmas, just by opening up to your spirit.

So what do you want this year?
