Spending Honeymoon In Las Vegas

By Low Jeremy

Whether you have decided to get married and spend your honeymoon at Las Vegas or hold your wedding somewhere else and spend the honeymoon here, one thing remains the same: Las Vegas can provide you with a unique honeymoon experience incomparable to other places in the world.

While some offer long stretch of white sand beaches, romantic beach resorts, tropical sunset, great art museums, ancient canals and rivers, Las Vegas offers entertainment at its best. Untrue to the common impression that Las Vegas is only for gamblers, Las Vegas has more to offer.

Resorts and hotels have their own way of entertaining their visitors since unique attractions are available inside these buildings. The Bellagio Hotel, Mirage Hotel, Ceasar's Palace, MGM Grand Hotel, Downtown Las Vegas particularly the Fremont Street Experience, Fountain Show, casinos, and restaurants, are some of the reasons why you should spend your honeymoon at Las Vegas.

Take note that Las Vegas is the top wedding destination in the country so expect that many hotels and resorts provide wedding packages as well as honeymoon packages. The place is prepared to accommodate couples who want to spend their first days as husband and wife.

Spending your honeymoon in Las Vegas could mean lots of things. For one, Las Vegas is considered Sin City or for some, the Gambling Capital of the World. While you may or may not try Las Vegas casinos out, the opportunity to experience how it feels to play at one of the tables in any of the casinos inside the City is like an apple right in front of your eyes only waiting for you to take the bite.

Taking away your attention to the casinos are foods and restaurants in all price ranges. Hotels and resorts have in house gourmet menus perfect for a romantic night for both of you. The streets of Las Vegas have all sorts of foods that are best while you are walking.

What a better way to see and feel Las Vegas than going out at night. Las Vegas has lots of nightspots waiting to be explored. These nightspots range from simple, formal to exotic.

Having A Las Vegas Wedding

By Melissa Burton

Las Vegas is a very popular place for couples to get married, especially couples in America. If the couple is getting grief about being together or getting married then they usually plan to elope to Las Vegas and have a wedding there. They are quick weddings and all you need is two people there to witness the wedding, you don't need to be dressed up or anything, but you can be! You can have a glamorous wedding at one of the top hotels in Las Vegas if you have a lot of money behind you, the smaller weddings are usually performed at what is like a drive through wedding service.

Las Vegas is casino central in America, they have the large flashing lights, the nude ladies dancing and the lights that take your breath away... Las Vegas is a marriage hot spot.

A Las Vegas wedding is somewhat controversial, some people call it cheesy others call it class. You can get anything in America fast food, fast drinks and now a fast wedding, parlours are all over Las Vegas where you can quickly pop in and a minister or a court official will make your marriage legal and that is that, for a small fee of course.

Then there is the great weddings that take place in hotels like the Plaza. These weddings cost a fortune and an arm and a leg to buy and they are very, very worth it. A Las Vegas wedding with a white stunning gown, hundreds of flowers and the man or woman of your dreams has got to be one of the biggest wedding fantasies, you then spend a night in the honeymoon suite together and enjoy the rest of your honeymoon by visiting the sights and sounds of Las Vegas.

Can you just image standing in front of hundreds of guests wearing a long elegant white dress holding the most stunning bouquet of flowers you have ever seen, then walking towards the man of dreams down a plush red carpet and all your guests staring at you, the lights from the chandelier hitting of your diamond earrings and necklace, welcome to Las Vegas!
