In modern language these parties and celebrations are referred as stags and hens do's. Stag Party

Way, way, way back in history the stag party was celebrated in all sorts of ways, and you thought it was a modern day invention, shame on you.

The Vikings stag party would consist of flagons of ale, pillaging, buxom wenches and fighting, well they did think they would only go to heaven if they died in a fight.

Poor Henry VIII, he had more stag parties then a busy working girl in Amsterdam. Do you think he chopped the heads off his wives because he was addicted to stag parties ?? Wow, we are writing history here!

These days, the majority of us have been on holiday with large groups of friends, been to University together, partied together its like getting divorced from your friends and getting married to the one you love. Its not like you won't see your friends again, is it?

With this being said, maybe it is like being reborn. After the days of Singledon and getting frightfully drunk with your friends maybe it is a time for change, a time for settling down and giving your liver a rest!

Surprise, surprise not everyone drinks so some of these comments would not apply, if you would like further information on Where to go, what to do, how to keep drunken pests in the group at bay click on the following links " stag Weekend " & " Stag Night ".
