THERE AWTAABEA LAW!

BY LINDA LANDRY (c)

We have rules for everything from grammar and spelling to traffic and behavior. The Internet is becoming 'ruled' as well. You become a SPA'MMER if you solicit your wares without permission. You are YELLING if you use capital letters to send your message and you are rude and inconsiderate if you expose your email list to everyone in your mailbox when you forward a little ditty or two.

Now I am convinced that everyone also had rules at the dinner table. Your Mom taught you etiquette! She told you to wash your hands before dinner. Didn't she tell you to keep your elbows off the table and put your napkin on your lap and not to talk with food in your mouth? My Mom was not a socialite or Miss Manners by any means but these table RULES were taught early on. The first and most important one in my book was not to blow your nose at the table. It sounds so disgusting; why would anyone do so anyway?

Restaurants have rules. Some don't take checks. Some post signs on the door: No shirt; No shoes; No Service. There are NO Smoking ordinances they adhere to. Why on earth don't they have a rule that says "DO NOT BLOW YOUR NOSE AT THE TABLE"?

THERE AWTAABEA LAW!

I think that should be a rule to enforce at the dinner table by the proprietor! What makes a person at the next table or even several tables over decide to BLOW THEIR NOSE while other patrons are eating is beyond me. Didn't their mother teach them anything? Doesn't the restaurant owner care about the appetite of others? I guess not or there would be a rule or a law. Blowing your nose at the dinner table seems far more offensive to me than typing in capital letters!

The Covenant and Christ

All are under sin, whether under the law or barbarians, and apart from the Law we are all in need of righteousness. Not one of us can stand before God righteous apart from Christ in us as our righteousness. God does have a covenant with Israel as His chosen race and we as believers are grafted onto the chosen race by grace. This is where there is neither Jew nor Gentile, slave nor free for we are all in Christ, and there is a level playing field for all mankind who are made partakers of divine nature.

We as Gentiles never become Jews, except in the spiritual sense we become circumcised in our hearts having the law of God written on our hearts and in our minds. In Christ we realise the fulfillment of the law in our lives. We cannot attain to it and neither can the Jew, so whether we are under the law or not, we are all facing the wrath of God towards sin. Where God will judge us for what we have done according to Paul's gospel, which is Christ in us, the hope of Glory.

We as gentiles do by nature that which is required by the law because we have Christ the fulfillment of the Law at work within us. What a wonderful position to be in before God. Israel is still God's chosen people and as such they have the protection and covenant of God.

Sin is what all men have and righteousness is what all men need.
