The Attorney ~ The Latest Super Hero in a Society Gone Mad! by Lawrence X. Young

Are you looking for a career or want to take legal action? An attorney may be the the answer for you, (also known as a lawyer). Whatever the matter, attorneys help all individuals – people (and companies) in a court of law. Generally specializing, allow them to be proficient when it comes to the legalities within their selected field.

An attorney is a useful means, to represent your points across in a court of law. On the other hand, representation by an attorney, who knows their specialized area in law can assist you in winning the case in court. Based upon the situation that you find yourself in, you may be lucky enough to secure a pro-bono offer from an attorney. Pro-bono is a contract to assist a client on a fee free arrangement. This pro-bono proposal may come with clauses, stating that should the case be won, a predestined percentage of the money awarded will be passed on to the representing attorney. As well as, the attorneys may attract clients, from their obvious gesture of good will. So consult your attorney in detail in this situation.

Getting the services of an attorney may not be painless, especially when there is money for fees to be arranged. However, it is also not easy to become and be an attorney; it needs years of study, hours of work and never ending research to be current.

To become an attorney, candidate must have a bachelor degree of approximately three to four years duration in any field. Even postgraduate students have to study and attend law school for three years, in order to become an attorney. There are several options of fields at law school, most of the students choose the most popular general law degree and not specialize in anything. That leads to broadening their option for a wide range of case load. They can also take suggestions from your mentors.

In today's world, an attorney is one of the busiest and wealthiest occupations among others. With society's nonstop wanting to sue people for trivial things, the attorney is obviously reaping the profit of this trend. So for how long will this go on? For how long can an attorney be given super hero status at the expense of eliminating everything life has to offer us in fear of a lawsuit. Will this always be the case, is the question.

THE HERO IN YOU

By Onaefe Umenu Edebi

So much we look up to higher places for help and encouragement. We all want someone who comes to us when we fall, when we are down. Someone to hold on to. But this hero is not always there, and as a thought "an angel has broken my heart".

But there's a hero, who's always there in joy, sadness, laughter and pain. Always there, he comes through for me. It's funny, when within me, I say "I don't see my hero", because though I may not see Him, I know He is there. Like an angel, He watches over me.

But you know what? We all have that hero. He is available to all of us— including you. We see Him, on the dawn of each new day; when we look through the image in the mirror. Even at night when we lay our head to sleep, our hero is always there; forgetting the past, concentrating on the present and seeing a bright future.

It's really simple.
