The Single's Guide To Online Dating

By Hak Ty

If you're single and you're willing to try out new avenues to dating then you should try out online dating. It's definitely fun, less expensive and easier than dating the regular way. You're also able to meet more people since the Internet lets you talk to people from all over the world! With online dating, there's no need to restrict yourself to dating the same old guys from your very small town (read: population of 817). With online dating, there's no such thing as social classes because it's open to everyone!

The Virtual Places To Be For Online Dating - If you're now open to the idea of online dating, there are several cyber places that you could stop by and see if there's anyone who appeals to your taste. First stop would be the online dating sites.

These sites were primarily designed to help people meet others with the same interests as theirs and maybe forge a relationship later on. Online dating sites such as these require you to register for membership and maybe even pay to enjoy additional features of the website.

Then, these online dating sites would ask you to create a profile for your own so that other members would know a little about you. These profiles could be the key to catching the interest of your future Mr. or Ms. Right so make sure that you make your profile as interesting as possible - without lying about anything, of course. Most online dating sites also allow you to upload photos of yourself so if you're reasonably attractive, do make sure that you post your best picture.

The second place that allows you to date online is chat rooms such as those provided by MIRC or Yahoo. These chat rooms are usually divided or categorized according to region, race or interest. If you enter a chat room with the name Singles20-40, then you should expect to meet people belonging to that age group. It's imperative to choose a chat room that reflects your preferences to ensure that you'll meet people who are probably similar to you in terms of interests.

The third virtual place to be if you want to try online dating is forums or interactive websites. By joining a forum or registering for membership in an interactive website, you'll be able to meet people who are sure to share the same interests as you do. These forums usually hold regular meetings so make sure that you participate actively and get yourself known!.

By F2 Entertainment

Hollywood, CA 2005 --- Frustrated by the lack of brutally honest dating advice and the over saturation of sugar-coated opinions of how girls and guys should date, reality TV winner, Frank Fontana and business partner Donya Mogadam, have taken over twenty years of "single-life" experience and comprised a humorously fresh and honest new take on the world of dating. This time with the spotlight placed on the infamous masters of the Game...Players.

Fontana has this to say, "In popular culture today, it's all about Players. A new breed of single girls and guys who navigate their way through relationships detached from the typical responsibilities one would adhere to in a traditional relationship. As such, a new breed requires a new guide to understand how they function and succeed, and this is it."

Mogadam adds, "No longer do girls have to be victims. Girls need to wake up and smell the coffee, it's about time we level the playing field and beat these players to the punch. This is the guide that will show you how!"

Together, they have created an online community dedicated to understanding the Player and their Game. With the provocative feel of "sex in the city" and assortments of fun interactive offerings, www.APlayersLife.com is guaranteed to become a new phenomenon in the world of all single girls and guys today.

Hollywood CA, ABC's reality TV star announces the launch of a new controversial online multi-media enterprise titled, "Players...The Girl, The Guy, The Game, – Everything you ever wanted to know but were afraid to ask!"
