Villas In Tuscany

By Giovanni Marchi

Travelling through Tuscany can be a very stressful experience, in spite of what all romantic books and guides tell you, if you do not know where to find that great spot or restaurant or museum you are looking for.

The first thing to do when planning a trip to Tuscany is to plan what are the things you would like to do when you are there. Are you looking for relax and just a hint of culture among strolls? Or would you like a full immersion in Tuscany's cultural heritage? Or would you like something in the middle?

It is important to know this because from here you will be able to choose the type of accommodation you want to be in. There are some villas which give you the true Tuscan country experience with 360 degrees breathtaking views, gardens that allow you to spend a whole week with bare feet, far from any other man-made landmark. Then there are villas at one mile from the nearest town, where you can still enjoy lots of privacy, but at the same time allow you to enjoy quick trips to nearby interesting spots.

What is the size of your group? Is it a large size group? Couple? Villas for large groups are common in Tuscany, but you have to get the budget right! At times very large villas can be too expensive, so the best thing is to rent a farmhouse composed of separate apartments in Tuscany. Lots of privacy for a small price!!!

After you have picked your lodging in Tuscany, plan a route towards the nearby cities. The good thing about Tuscany is that it has plenty of small towns within one hour from almost any location, so you will be able to enjoy different kinds of food and wines in just one week's time.

Do not worry about the activities to do in Tuscany. Almost all owners can speak decent English and they are the best source of information on how to spend your holiday in Tuscany and have fun. They will tell you what to do, whether you want to hike, horseback ride, go hot air ballooning, taste wine, participate to cultural tours, cooking courses, concerts, or anything you like!

I love travelling to Tuscany and giving advice to who shares this passion.

Beautiful Tuscany

By Giovanni Marchi

So much has been written on Tuscany, and so much will be, but it seems like it's never enough to cover all the what can be said about this wonderful region in Italy and the hospitable people that inhabit it.

Tuscany holds within its museums, galleries, open spaces and private collections, 35% of the world's historic and artistic heritage, which accounts for millions and millions of operas to see visit study and leave first hand, such as the Town of San Gimignano, recently declared by UNESCO as world heritage site.

The richness that characterizes this Italian land, however, is not limited to artistic beauty and historical events. Tuscany is a land conformed in so many various ways, where agriculture still dominates the landscapes and colors the land with different hues throughout the year depending on the season and on the culture. The Siennese Crete are renown worldwide for having appeared on so many a calendar on Tuscany and Italy. Characterized by the rolling hills and the occasional groups of cypresses, this part of Tuscany is home to many beautiful farmhouses and villas resting on the top of hills dotting the landscape. A wonderful example are these Villas for large groups of people in Tuscany

The Chianti region, famous for its wine, wonderful countryside and unique cities such as Siena and Florence, still offers a plethora of events and places where life can be enjoyed the Tuscan way. Thanks to the warmth that the people of this land offers to visitors and foreigners, life in Tuscany and the Chianti region has become famous abroad. The landscape of Chianti is rich with wonderful castles and Tuscany Villas.

The Florence area region is very much explored and offers towns and castles and Tuscany best outlets of rare beauty. On the other side, facing the Mediterranean sea, the Maremma region is home to a wild and gree countryside that rolls towards the sea. Cities such as Talamone, Punta Ala, and Porto Ercole are just an example of the Medieval origins of this castle-towns. Concludidng, Tuscany has a special corner for anyone with the desire to discover this land rich with music festivals, traditions, history, art, and love for life enjoyment.
