Wedding Invitations

By Elsie Gilbert

Whenever anyone decides to get married, one of the most important decisions is which guests are going to be invited to the various celebrations. For people to know that they are invited to your wedding ceremony, they will need to receive an invitation.

Wedding invitations are no longer a simple card in the post; they are a vital part of the wedding theme and without careful thought can really dent your budget and leave guests confused.

Wedding Invitations : The Basics

Wedding invitations must, essentially tell your guests the vital information such as where, when and the format of the event. Don't get wrapped up in the detail and forget to tell the guests the date and location!

Be clear with your wedding invitations as to exactly what type of event your guests are being invited to. Is the event an informal affair with no particular dress code, or is it a party celebration that requires certain attire. By making this clear on your wedding invitations, you will save yourself many hours on the phone explaining the nature of your wedding; this will prevent any red faces on the day.

Make it clear exactly what will be included, can guests expect a full meal or will there be a buffet? If your wedding ceremony is taking place at a separate location to the reception, will transport be provided and what time does each part' of the day start.

Reply Style Wedding Invitations

A great way to find out the exact numbers that you can expect to attend is to create wedding invitations with an integral reply section. The reply can be a simple yes or no, however it may also be worth finding out more information such as whether there are any special dietary requirements or whether accommodation / transport is required.

Wedding Invitations

Wedding invitations can be used, not only to provide a lot of information but also to receive information. As part of your wedding invitations you can also include information such as maps or details about the surrounding area. This is particularly important, as many guests use attending a wedding as an opportunity to have a short break, so include some interesting brochures.

Wedding Invitations 96 Clever Ideas

With weddings becoming increasingly expensive, the choice of wedding invitations can provide you with the perfect opportunity to save money, big time. If your guests are technologically able, why not go online? You could even set up a website with all of the relevant information and the option to reply online. If you choose this approach, make sure that you have the necessary security and passwords so that you don't inadvertently invite the whole world!

Wedding invitations do not have to be elaborate; in fact a homemade version with a personal picture can be far more effective and a lot cheaper. Get a third person, who does not know the details of your wedding to proof read the wedding invitations to ensure that you haven't missed out anything vital.

Finally, make sure you send your wedding invitations out in plenty of time for your guests to respond.

Wedding Invitations And Which To Pick

By Ken Donald

When planning a wedding there is a bundle of things to get done before you actually stand in front of the minister. Wedding rings, wedding favors, wedding accessories and where to travel to on your honeymoon. But the most importantly to start out with is to choose your wedding invitations. There are more wedding invitations out there to choose from than one can comprehend, and many places to look.

Do a search online for wedding invitations and you will definitely find information about wedding planning in abundance. There are sites with all kinds of wedding information in many variations and styles.

You can order wedding invitations online, 24 hours a day. And if you need help with the wedding invitation wording or etiquette you can find that too. The process of planning your wedding is easy when you got this type of service.

Wedding Invitations

Picking your invitations are almost as important as picking your wedding dress. I know that sounds crazy. But think about it. The first impression your guest gets from your wedding ceremony and party, are your invitation. It gives that valuable impression, which tells the invited guest what to expect on your wedding day. It's not the wedding flowers or the wedding cake toppers. All this is making an impression much later.

Do a search for wedding invitations in online wedding magazines or at your local bookstore or library. You will get a good idea of what is possible and available.

One brand of wedding invitations is bridal. It can be found in stores and wedding stationery shops. A bridal invitation comes in a broad selection of styles and colors. Take your time to look through what ever you come across in your search for wedding invitations. It is time-consuming but you get solid experience that makes you choose the right wedding invitation for you and your wedding.

With a bridal notebook you can keep track of your preferred wedding invitations. Start your wedding planning several months before the wedding and especially search for those wedding invitations. If you have ordered your wedding invitations it can take some time to get them.

Being in good time also helps if a mistake happens with your invitations. You need enough time to order a reprint. You do not want to send out wedding invitations with incorrect information on them. If you order your wedding invitations from a wedding stationary shop, it can cost more money than one would expect. But the quality reflects the price.

If you have a budget where you need to save money where it is possible; you can make and print your own wedding invitations. There are a lot of different cards, envelopes, stamps and stuff available if you want to make your own invitations. This is a great idea if you are creative and want a unique and special wedding invitation. You can also find wedding invitations that you can print on your own computer.

Wedding invitations do set the character for the wedding. Pick the right wedding invitations to make your special day unique.

Thank you for your time.
